The new edition

Interchange Fourth Edition is a fully revised edition of Interchange Third Edition, the world's most successful series for adult and young adult learners of English.

The course has been thoroughly updated, and it remains the innovative series teachers and students have grown to love, while incorporating suggestions from teachers and students all over the world. There is new content in every unit, additional grammar practice, as well as opportunities to develop speaking and listening skills.

What's new

Content – more than half of the readings are new and many others have been updated.

Grammar plus – the self-study section at the back of the Student's Book provides additional grammar practice that students can do in class or as homework. An answer key is also included at the back of the book, so students can check their work.

Progress checks – the Self-assessment charts have been revised to reflect student outcomes, and the statements are aligned with the Common European Framework of Reference (CEFR). This allows students to assess their ability to communicate effectively rather than focus on mastery of grammar.

Student's self-study DVD-ROM – contains brand new content at each level of the Student's Book. The interactive activities provide students with extra practice in vocabulary, grammar, listening, speaking, and reading. It also contains the complete video program with activities that allow students to check their comprehension themselves.

Assessment Audio CD / CD-ROM – contains eight oral and written quizzes plus a midterm and final exam. The quizzes are available in two formats – as ready-to-print PDFs and in Microsoft Word. The audio program, audio scripts, and answer keys are also included on this disc.

Video Program overview

The Interchange Video Program is designed to complement the Student's Books. Each video provides further practice related to the topics, language, and vocabulary introduced in the corresponding unit of the Student's Book.

VIDEO IN THE CLASSROOM

The use of video in the classroom can be an exciting and effective way to teach and learn.

The Interchange Video Program is a unique resource that does the following:

- Depicts dynamic, natural contexts for language use.
- Uses engaging story lines to present authentic language as well as cultural information about speakers of English.
- Enables learners to use visual information to enhance comprehension.
- Allows learners to observe the gestures, facial expressions, and other aspects of body language that accompany speech.

PROGRAM COMPONENTS

Video

The sixteen videos in each level's video program complement Units 1 through 16 of the corresponding Student's Book. There are a variety of genres: dramatized stories, documentaries, interviews, profiles, and travelogues.

Video Resource Book

The Video Resource Book contains the following:

- engaging photocopiable worksheets for students
- detailed teaching notes for teachers
- answer keys for the student worksheets
- complete video transcripts

TEACHING A TYPICAL VIDEO SEQUENCE

The worksheets and teaching notes for each video are organized into four sections: Preview, Watch the video, Follow-up, and Language close-up. The unit-by-unit teaching notes in the Video Resource Book give detailed suggestions for teaching each unit.

Preview

The Preview activities build on each other to provide students with relevant background information and key vocabulary that will assist them in better understanding the video. This section typically includes the following elements.

- Culture: activities to introduce the topics of the video sequences and provide important background and cultural information
- Vocabulary: activities to introduce and practice the essential vocabulary of the videos through a variety of interesting tasks
- Guess the facts / Guess the story: activities in which students make predictions about characters and their actions by watching part of the video, by watching all of the video with the sound off, or by looking at photos in the worksheets. These schema-building activities improve students' comprehension when they watch the full video with sound.

Watch the video

The carefully sequenced Watch the video activities first help students focus on gist and then guide them in identifying important details and language. These tasks also prepare them for Follow-up speaking activities.

- Get the picture: initial viewing activities first help students gain a global understanding of the videos by focusing on gist. Activity types vary from unit to unit, but typically involve watching for key information needed to complete a chart, answer questions, or arrange events in sequential order.

- Watch for details: activities in which students focus on more detailed meaning by watching and listening for specific information to complete the tasks
- What's your opinion?: activities in which students make inferences about the characters' actions, feelings, and motivations, or state their own opinions about topics in the video

Follow-up

The Follow-up speaking activities encourage students to extend and personalize information by voicing their opinions or carrying out communicative tasks.

- Role play, interview, and other expansion activities: communicative activities based on the videos in which students extend and personalize what they have learned. Students can use new language to talk about themselves and their ideas as they complete the tasks.

Language close-up

Students finish with the Language close-up, examining and practicing the particular language structures and functions presented in the video.

- What did they say?: cloze activities that aim to develop bottom-up listening skills by having students focus on the specific language in the videos and then fill in missing words.
- Grammar and functional activities: activities which reflect the structural and functional focus of a particular unit as presented in the videos.

OPTIONS FOR THE CLASSROOM

Once teachers feel comfortable with the basic course procedures, they can try other classroom techniques for presenting and working with the videos. Here are several proven techniques.

Fast-forward viewing For activities in which students watch the video with the sound off, play the entire sequence on fast-forward and have students list all of the things they see. Nearly all of the activities designed to be completed with the sound off can be done in this manner.

Information gap Play approximately the first half of a video, and then have students work in pairs or groups to predict what will happen next. Play the rest of the sequence so that students can check their predictions.

Act it out All of the videos provide an excellent basis for role plays and drama activities. Select a short scene, and have students watch it several times. Then have pairs or groups act out the scene, staying as close as possible to the actions and expressions of the characters. Have pairs or groups act out their scenes in front of the class.

What are they saying? Have students watch a short segment of a video in which two people are talking, but without sound. Then have pairs use the context to predict what the people might be saying to each other. Have pairs write out sample dialogs and share their work with the class.

Freeze-frame Freeze a frame of a video and have students call out information about the scene: the objects they can see, what the people are doing, the time and place – whatever is appropriate to the scene or the learning situation.

Classroom Presentation Software overview

Interchange Classroom Presentation Software combines the contents of the Student's Book, the class audio, and the video program for each level of the series into a convenient one-stop presentation solution. It can be used with all types of interactive whiteboards or with just a projector and a computer to present Interchange core materials in the classroom in a lively and engaging way.

The software provides an effective medium to focus students' attention on the content being presented and practiced. It can also help promote their participation and interaction with the material in a more dynamic way.

This component simplifies several of the teaching tasks that take place in the classroom. You can use the software to play audio or video without having to use a separate CD or DVD player, display the answers for the exercises in an uncomplicated way, zoom in on a page to more efficiently focus students' attention on an activity or image, and even annotate pages for future lessons.

Animated Presentations overview

The Interchange Fourth Edition Animated Presentations contain the digitally reproduced Student's Book pages in PowerPoint format, allowing teachers to display answers in the classroom using only a computer and a projector. Introduction to the CEFR

Introduction to the Common European Framework of Reference (CEFR)

The overall aim of the Council of Europe's Common European Framework of Reference (CEFR) is to provide objective criteria for describing and assessing language proficiency in an internationally comparable manner. The Council of Europe's work on the definition of appropriate learning objectives for adult language learners dates back to the '70s. The influential Threshold series (J. A. van Ek and J. L. M. Trim, Cambridge University Press, 1991) provides a detailed description in functional, notional, grammatical, and sociocultural terms, of what a language user needs to be able to do in order to communicate effectively in the sort of situations commonly encountered in everyday life. Three levels of proficiency are identified, called Waystage, Threshold, and Vantage (roughly corresponding to Elementary, Intermediate, and Upper Intermediate).

The Threshold series was followed in 2001 by the publication of the Common European Framework of Reference, which describes six levels of communicative ability in terms of competences or "can do" statements: A1 (Breakthrough), A2 (Waystage), B1 (Threshold), B2 (Vantage), C1 (Effective Operational Proficiency), and C2 (Mastery). Based on the CEFR descriptors, the Council of Europe also developed the European Language Portfolio, a document that enables learners to assess their language ability and to keep an internationally recognized record of their language learning experience.

Interchange Fourth Edition and the Common European Framework of Reference

The table below shows how Interchange Fourth Edition correlates with the Council of Europe's levels and with some major international examinations.

	CEFR	Council of Europe	Cambridge ESOL	IELTS	TOEFL iBT	TOEIC
Interchange
Level Intro	A1	Breakthrough				120+
Level 1	A2	Waystage				225+
Level 2	B1	Threshold	KET (Key English Test)	4.0–5.0	57–86	550+
Level 3			PET (Preliminary English Test)
Passages
Level 1	B2	Vantage	FCE (First Certificate in English)	5.5–6.5	87–109	785+
Level 2	C1	Effective Operational Efficiency	CAE (Certificate in Advanced English)	7.0–8.0	110–120	490+ (Listening) 445+ (Reading)

Essential teaching tips

Classroom management

Error correction

- During controlled practice accuracy activities, correct students' wrong use of the target language right away, either by correcting the error yourself or, whenever possible, having the student identify and / or correct the error. This way, the focus is on accuracy, and students can internalize the correct forms, meaning, and use of the language.
- During oral fluency activities, go around the room and take notes on errors you hear. Do not interrupt students. Instead, take notes of their errors in the use of target language and write these errors on the board. Encourage students to correct them first. Be sure to point out and praise students for language used correctly as well.

Grouping students

It is good to have students work in a variety of settings: individually, in pairs, in groups and as a class. This creates a more student-centered environment and increases student talking time.

- The easiest and quickest way to put students in pairs is to have two students sitting close to one another work together. This is good for when students need to have a quick discussion or check answers.
- To ensure students don't always work with the same partner and / or for longer activities, pair students by name, e.g., Maria work with Javier.
- One way to put students in groups is to give them a number from 1 to 4, and then have all number 1s work together, all number 2s work together, and so forth.

Instructions

- Give short instructions and model the activity for the students.
- Check your instructions, but avoid asking, Do you understand? Instead ask concept questions such as, Are you going to speak or write when you do this activity?

Monitoring

- Make sure you go around the room and check that the students are doing the activity and offer help as necessary.
- Monitor closely during controlled practice, but don't make yourself too accessible during fluency activities; otherwise, students may rely on you to answer questions rather than focus on communicating their ideas to their partner or group.

Teaching lower-level students

- Teach the Classroom Language on page xxix and put useful language up in the classroom, so the students get used to using English.
- Don't rush. Make sure all the students have had enough time to practice the material.
- Do a lot of repetition and drilling of the new target language.
- Encourage students to practice and review target language by doing activities in the Workbook, and Self-study DVD-ROM.
- Elicit answers from your students and involve them in the learning process. Even though they are beginners, they may have a passive knowledge of English. Find out what they already know by asking them questions.
- Use the optional activities within the Teaching Notes and the Supplementary Resources Overview charts at the beginning of each unit in this Teacher's Edition to add variety to your lessons.

Teaching reading and listening

- Reading and Listening texts are meant to help the students become better readers / listeners, not to test them. Explain to your students why they need to read or listen to a text several times.
- Adapt the reading speed to the purpose of the reading. When the students read for gist, encourage them to read quickly. When students read for detail, give them more time.

12 READING

Learning Objectives: read and discuss an article about names; develop skills in scanning and reading for detail

- Ask: "What English names do you like? Why?" Elicit answers.
- Focus Ss' attention on the title of the reading. Ask: "What do you think this article is about?" Elicit ideas.
- Ss scan the text quickly to find examples of names. Ask: "Do you know any people with these names? What are they like?"
- Point out that in the last paragraph Georges and Bettys are simply plurals of George and Betty. This refers to all people with those names.

A

- Explain the task. Read the statements.
- Ss read the article individually. Then they complete the task. Go over answers with the class.

Answers

12 READING

What's in a Name?

Look at the names in the article. Do you know any people with these names? What are they like?

Your name is very important. When you think of yourself, you probably think of your name first. It is an important part of your identity.

Right now, the two most popular names for babies in the United States are "Jacob" for boys and "Emma" for girls. Why are these names popular? And why are other names unpopular?

Names can become popular because of famous actors, TV or book characters, or athletes. Popular names suggest very positive things. Unpopular names suggest negative things. Surprisingly, people generally agree on the way they feel about names. Here are some common opinions about names from a recent survey.

Boys' names

George: average, boring
Jacob: creative, friendly
Michael: good-looking, athletic Stanley: nerdy, serious

Girls' names

Betty: old-fashioned, average
Emma: independent, adventurous
Jane: plain, ordinary
Nicole: beautiful, intelligent

So why do parents give their children unpopular names? One reason is tradition. Many people are named after a family member. Of course, opinions can change over time. A name that is unpopular now may become popular in the future. That's good news for all the Georges and Bettys out there!

A Read the article. Then check (✓) the statements that are true.

- ☐ 1. Your name is part of your identity.
- ☐ 2. People often feel the same way about a particular name.
- ☐ 3. Boys' names are more popular than girls' names.
- ☐ 4. People are often named after family members.
- ☐ 5. Opinions about names can change.

B According to the article, which names suggest positive things? Which suggest negative things? Complete the chart.

12 READING

Learning Objectives: read and discuss an article about jobs; develop skills in reading for specific information

TIP To help Ss focus on the task, tell them not to worry about words they don't understand. Encourage them to keep reading when they see new words.

- Set the scene. A high school student, college student, and new parent need jobs. Ask: "Why do they need jobs?" Elicit ideas and write them on the board.
- Focus Ss' attention on the pictures. Tell Ss to cover the profiles. Ask: "Who's in high school? in college? a new parent?" Encourage Ss to guess.
- Set a time limit of one minute. Ss scan the three profiles quickly to check their guesses. (Answers: Julia is in college. Denise is a new parent. Eddie is in high school.)

A

- Explain the task. Tell Ss to guess the meanings of any new words.
- Ss read the article and complete the task. Go over answers with the class.

Answers

1. To save money: Denise
2. To pay for college: Julia
3. To go out on the weekend: Eddie
4. To buy a house: Denise

- Elicit or explain any new vocabulary.

Vocabulary

experience: the work a person did in the past save: to keep for later take care of: care for type: to write on a computer allowance: money parents give children to spend earn: to receive money for work

B Pair work

- Ask Ss to read the article again. Tell them to take notes about each person's schedules and experience.
- ! For a new way to teach this Reading, try Jigsaw Learning – download it from the website.
- Go over the ads with Ss. Then explain the task. Ask: "What is Julia's schedule like? What experience does she have? What jobs are good for her? Why?" Elicit ideas from the class.
- Ss choose jobs for Julia, Denise, and Eddie in pairs. Make sure Ss explain why.

Possible answers

Julia has a difficult schedule. She needs a flexible job or an evening job. English tutor and receptionist are good jobs for her.

Denise needs to work at home because she has a baby. She can type and has a computer. Online salesperson is the best job for her.

Eddie can work afternoons, evenings, and weekends. Chef and server are good jobs for him.

- For more practice with daily routines, play True or False? – download it from the website. Have Ss prepare sentences about what they do every day.

End of Cycle 2

See the Supplementary Resources chart at the beginning of this unit for additional teaching materials and student activities related to this Cycle and for assessment tools.

12 READING

Why do you need a job?

Scan the profiles. Who is in high school? Who is in college? Who is a new parent?

These people need jobs. Read about their schedules, experience, and why they need a job.

Eddie Chen

I'm 16 now, and my parents don't give me an allowance anymore. I want to earn some money because I like to go out with my friends on the weekend. I go to school at 8:00 and get home around 4:30. My parents own a restaurant, so I know a little about restaurant work.

Julia Brown

I study French and want to be a teacher someday. I have classes all day on Monday, Tuesday, and Thursday, and on Wednesday and Friday afternoons. I usually study on weekends. I need a job because college is really expensive! I don't have any experience, but I'm a fast learner.

Denise Parker

My husband is an accountant and makes good money, but we don't save very much. We live in a small apartment, and we have a new baby. We want to save money to buy a house. I take care of the baby, so I need a job I can do at home. I can type well, and I have a new computer.

Units 1-2 Progress check

SELF-ASSESSMENT

Learning Objectives: reflect on one's learning; identify areas that need improvement

- Ask: "What did you learn in Units 1 and 2?" Elicit Ss' answers.
- Ss complete the Self-assessment. Encourage them to be honest, and point out they will not get a bad grade if they check (✓) a little.

- Ss move on to the Progress check exercises. You can have Ss complete them in class or for homework, using one of these techniques:

1. Ask Ss to complete all the exercises.
2. Ask Ss: "What do you need to practice?" Then assign exercises based on their answers.
3. Ask Ss to choose and complete exercises based on their Self-assessment.

1 ROLE PLAY

Learning Objectives: assess one's ability to make an introduction and use basic greeting and leave-taking expressions; assess one's ability to ask for repetition for clarification

A Pair work

- Read the instructions aloud and focus Ss' attention on the picture. Explain that Ss should pretend they don't know their partners in this role play.
- Model the role play with a S. Explain how to use the conversation cues.
- Ss role-play the conversation in pairs. Encourage Ss to use appropriate body language and gestures, add follow-up questions, and ask for clarification where appropriate.

- Option: Ss introduce themselves without referring to the example conversation.

B Group work

- Each pair joins another pair. Ss introduce their partners to the other pair and ask follow-up questions.

TIP If you don't have enough class time for the speaking activities, assign each S a speaking partner. Then have Ss complete the activities with their partners for homework.

2 SPEAKING

Learning Objective: assess one's ability to ask and answer questions about myself and other people

- Explain the task and model the first question. Ss should consider if the questions are Wh- or yes/no questions.
- Ss work individually to write the seven questions. Point out that there may be more than one correct question for each answer.
- Go over Ss' questions with the class.

Possible answers

1. What's your name?
2. Where are you from?
3. Are your classes interesting?
4. What's your favorite class?
5. Is your teacher American?
6. What are your classmates like?
7. Who is your best friend?

- Ss work in pairs. They take turns using the questions to interview each other. Encourage Ss to add follow-up questions.
- Option: Each S uses the questions to interview another S.

SPEAKING

B Listen to the rest of the conversation. What else does the customer look at? Does she buy it?

How much is it?

Cycle 1, Exercises 1-7

1 SNAPSHOT

Learning Objective: read about and discuss the meaning of colors

- Books closed. Ask several Ss: "What is your favorite color?" Write the colors on the board. Help with vocabulary for colors as needed.
- Ask several Ss to choose between pairs of adjectives for colors. For example, ask: "Is red exciting or sad?" "Is white dirty or pure?"
- Books open. Explain that colors have different meanings in different countries. Discuss the meanings in the Snapshot. Elicit or explain any new vocabulary.

Vocabulary

truthful: honest

jealous: unhappy because you want someone's things mysterious: strange and difficult to understand friendly: nice to other people; sociable

pure: very clean

In Unit 3, students discuss money, especially with regard to shopping. In Cycle 1, they talk about prices using demonstratives and the pronouns one/ones. In Cycle 2, they talk about preferences using comparisons with adjectives.

- Focus Ss' attention on the first two questions. Draw this chart on the board:

Positive meanings

pure

Negative meanings

sad

- Ask different Ss to add adjectives from the Snapshot to the chart. Does everyone agree on the placement of exciting? of mysterious?
- Ss discuss the last two questions in pairs. Allow about five minutes. Then discuss the questions as a class.
- Option: Select three colors. In pairs or groups, Ss make lists of all the things in the room with those colors.

2 CONVERSATION

Learning Objective: practice a conversation about shopping; see demonstratives and one/ones in context

A [CD 1, Track 21]

- To set the scene, focus Ss' attention on the picture. Ask: "Where are they? What are they doing?"
- Write this focus question on the board:
What color scarf does she buy?
- Books closed (or text covered). Play the audio program. Ss listen for the answer. (Answer: yellow)
- Option: Write these focus questions on the board:
 - How much are the gray gloves?
 - Why does she buy the scarf?
- Then play the audio again. Ss check answers. (Answers: 1. $18 2. It's really pretty.)
- Books open (or uncover the text). Play the audio program again. Ss listen and read along silently.
- Elicit or explain any new vocabulary.

That's not bad.: They aren't too expensive.

Hmm: a sound people make when they're thinking

Let's see.: Allow me to look (at the price).

I'll take it.: I'll buy it.

- Ss practice the conversation in pairs.
- For a new way to practice this Conversation, try the Onion Ring technique – download it from the website.

B [CD 1, Track 22]

- Read the two focus questions aloud. Then play the audio program. Elicit answers from the class.

AudioScript

Salesclerk We have some nice hats over here.

Customer Oh, yeah? I need a new hat.

Salesclerk They're on sale today only.

Customer Oh, they are nice. This red one is pretty. How much is it?

Salesclerk It's $26.50.

Customer Hmm ... I don't think so. Thanks anyway.

Answers

She looks at a hat. She doesn't buy it.

GRAMMAR FOCUS

Learning Objective: practice demonstratives and one/ones

 [CD 1, Track 23]

Demonstratives

- Books closed. Point to Ss' things and make statements with this and these (e.g., "This is Peter's pen. This is Jane's necklace. These are Dan's glasses.").
- Hold some things close to show how we use this or these for nearby things. Explain that this refers to a singular thing, while these refers to plurals.
- Option: Ss place their things in a bag. Each S takes out something and says whose it is (e.g., "This is Mary's pen.").
- Place some thing far away to show how we use that and those. Ss point to things and make statements (e.g., "That is Bill's book. Those are Mike's keys."). Explain that that refers to a singular thing, while those refers to plural things.
- To check Ss' understanding of demonstratives and review colors, ask about things in the room (e.g., "What color is this pen? What color are those books?").

One/Ones

- Focus Ss' attention on the Conversation on page 16. Ask Ss to find examples of one and ones.
- For each example, ask: "What noun does one replace?" (Answers: the blue and orange scarf or the yellow scarf) Elicit the rule: One replaces a singular noun, and ones replaces a plural noun.
- Play the first part of the audio program.

TIP To raise awareness of both the meaning and form of a new structure, always link the Grammar Focus to the Conversation.

Saying prices

- Play the rest of the audio program. Ss repeat the prices. Present additional examples as needed.
-  For practice in listening for prices, play Bingo using prices instead of words – download it from the website.

A

- Model the first line of the first conversation.
- Ss complete the task individually. Go over answers with the class.

Answers

- A: Excuse me. How much are those jeans?
B: Which ones? Do you mean these?
A: No, the light blue ones.
B: Oh, those are $59.95.
A: Wow! That's expensive.
- A: How much is that backpack?
B: Which one?
A: The red one.
B: It's $36.99. But this green one is only $22.25.
A: That's not bad. Can I see it, please?

- Ss practice the conversations in pairs.
- Option: Bring in two different pairs of sunglasses, pens, necklaces, or hats. Then Ss practice the conversations again using these things.

B Pair work

- Explain the task. Ss work in pairs to choose prices for the sunglasses, phones, and scarves.
- Model the example conversation with a S. Then Ss take turns asking and answering questions about the items. Go around the class to check for the use of demonstratives and one or ones.
- Option: If you live in an English-speaking environment, have Ss go to a store to ask the prices of three things in English.
- Option: Bring in clothing catalogs. Ss use them to practice the conversations.
-  For a new way to practice this Conversation, try the Substitution Dialog – download it from the website.

8 WORD POWER

Learning Objective: learn vocabulary for clothes and materials

A

- If possible, bring in one thing made of each material: cotton, rubber, gold, silk, leather, silver, plastic, and wool. Write the names of the materials on cards. Put the items on your desk with the cards next to them.
- Say the word for each material. Ss repeat the word.
- Explain the task. Ss work individually to complete the exercise. Go around the class and give help. Make sure that Ss do not add -s to the adjectives (e.g., NOT wools socks, rubbers boots).
- Go over answers with the class.

Answers

- | | |
|------------------------------|----------------------------|
| 1. a silk tie | 5. a leather jacket |
| 2. a plastic bracelet | 6. silver earrings |
| 3. a gold ring | 7. rubber boots |
| 4. a cotton shirt | 8. wool socks |

Pair work

- Write the names of the eight things in part A across the top of the board. Ask the question in the book.

- Ask different Ss to write possible materials below each thing on the board. For example, under socks they can write wool, cotton, or silk.
- Option: Use the materials word cards. Ask Ss to place the cards next to other items in the classroom made of these materials.

TIP

Ss usually forget about 80 percent of new words after 24 hours. To help them remember more, recycle or review new vocabulary the next class.

C Class activity

- Model the sentence for the class.
- Ss make as many statements as possible. Point out that they can use other patterns (e.g., “I’m wearing . . .”).
- Option: Ss write four sentences about what they have or what they’re wearing on a piece of paper. Collect the papers and read the sentences aloud. Then Ss guess who wrote the sentences.
- For more practice with vocabulary for materials, play Change Chairs – download it from the website. Give the first command: “Change chairs if you have a leather jacket.”

9 CONVERSATION

Learning Objectives: practice a conversation about preferences; see comparisons with adjectives in context

A [CD 1, Track 27]

- Elicit ideas and vocabulary based on the picture.
- Set the scene. Brett and Lisa are shopping. Ask Ss to listen for answers to these focus questions:
 1. What are they shopping for?
 2. Which color sweater does Brett prefer?
 3. Does Brett buy a wool sweater?
- Books closed. Play the audio program. Then check answers to the focus questions. (Answers: 1. wool sweaters 2. blue 3. no)

How much do these things cost in your country? Complete the chart. Then compare the prices in your country with the prices in the U.S.

10 GRAMMAR FOCUS

Learning Objective: practice preferences and comparisons with adjectives

 [CD 1, Track 29]

Preferences

- Bring some items to class that are similar (e.g., two rings, two ties, two pens, two T-shirts).
- Focus Ss' attention on the Conversation on page 19. Ask: "Which sweaters do Brett and Lisa prefer? Why?" Write the answers on the board and underline the words likes and better.
Lisa likes the green one better. It looks warmer.
Brett likes the blue one better. It's more stylish than the green one.
- Point out that like better means prefer.
- Hold up two similar items (e.g., two ties). Ask two or three Ss: "Which one do you prefer?" Elicit the response: "I prefer . . ." or "I like . . . better." Repeat with other pairs of items.
- Option: Use two pairs of similar items to review ones.

Comparisons with adjectives

- Underline warmer and more stylish in the sentences on the board. Then draw two columns on the board, like this:
- | | |
|----------|----------------|
| 1 | 2 |
| warmer | more expensive |
| nicer | more stylish |
| prettier | more beautiful |

TIP To help Ss see the differences in grammar forms, use different colors on the board.

- Point out that column 1 has two one-syllable adjectives (warm, nice) and one two-syllable adjective that ends in -y (pretty). The comparative forms of these adjectives end in -er.
- Point out that column 2 has adjectives of two or more syllables (e.g., expensive). The comparative forms of these start with more.

11 WRITING

Learning Objective: write a paragraph comparing prices

- Have Ss read the directions, chart, and sample paragraph. Allow three minutes.
- Ask: "What does the chart show? What are you going to add to the chart?" (Answers: prices in the U.S., prices in my country)

- Elicit more comparative adjectives for both columns. Ask different Ss to write them on the board.
- Point out the spelling rules in the Grammar Focus box. A final -y changes to -i when we add -er (prettier), and a single vowel + consonant doubles the consonant (bigger).
- Present the irregular forms: good – better and bad – worse. Then play the audio program.
- Hold up two items again. Ask: "Which . . . do you prefer? Why do you prefer it/them?" Elicit answers.
- Option: Ask Ss to look back over previous units to find more adjectives. (See pages 7 and 16.) Elicit the comparative forms and ask different Ss to write them in column 1 or 2.

A

- Explain the task. Remind Ss to look at the pictures when answering.
- Ss complete the task individually. Then go over answers with the class.

Answers

- A: Which of these jackets do you like more?
B: I prefer the leather one. The design is nicer, and it looks more expensive than the wool one.
- A: These T-shirts are nice. Which one do you prefer?
B: I like the green and white one better. The colors are prettier. It's more attractive than the gray and black one.
- A: Which earrings do you like better?
B: I like the silver ones more. They're bigger than the gold ones. And they're cheaper.

- Ss practice the conversations in pairs.

B Pair work

- Focus Ss' attention on the pictures in part A. Model the conversation with a S. Go over the useful expressions.
 - Ss work in pairs. They talk about the items, giving their opinions.
-  For more practice making comparative forms, play  Tic-Tac-Toe – download it from the website.

- Ss work individually. First they complete the chart. Then they write a paragraph comparing prices.
- Ss read each other's paragraphs and make suggestions.
- Option: Ss write a paragraph in class and then revise it for homework.

12 READING

Learning Objective: read and discuss an article about online shopping; develop skills in scanning and differentiating fact and opinion

TIP To help Ss understand what reading strategy to use, focus their attention on the purpose of the task. For example: "Today we're going to practice scanning a text to find specific information."

- Set the scene. Ask: "How often do you go shopping? Do you like shopping? Do you ever buy things on the Internet?"
- Explain that this article is about famous websites where people shop online.
- Option: If Ss have access to the Internet, tell them to look at the websites Facebook, Twitter, Shopzilla, and Google before they read. If Ss have smartphones, have them look at any shopping applications they may have.
- Point out the pre-reading questions. Ss guess the answers. Then they scan the text quickly to check their guesses.

Answers

Facebook, Twitter, Shopzilla, Google

- Elicit or explain any new vocabulary.

Vocabulary

online: using the Internet social networking: connecting with people through websites smartphone: a cell phone with computer features bargain: something you get for a good price

A

- Explain the task. Ss read the article. Remind Ss not to worry about words they don't know. Ss then answer the questions individually.
- Option: Ss work in pairs. One S answers questions a and b, while the other S answers questions c and d. Then they share their answers.
- Ss compare answers in pairs or small groups.

Answers

- a. Shopzilla and Google compare prices, give reviews, and find stores near you with the best bargains.
- b. Twitter users are called Twitterers.
- c. You can type in the item number and check prices.
- d. Two social networking sites are Facebook and Twitter.

B

- Explain the task. Model the first example. First, find the information in the article. (Answer: paragraph 2) Then find the names of the websites. (Answer: Facebook, Twitter)
- Ss work individually. Go around the class and give help as needed.
- Ss compare answers in pairs. Then go over answers with the class.

- Discuss the questions as a class.

End of Cycle 2

See the Supplementary Resources chart at the beginning of this unit for additional teaching materials and student activities related to this Cycle and for assessment tools.

12 READING

Tools for Better Shopping

Scan the article. Find the names of popular websites. Do you use any of them for shopping?

1 Do you like to shop online? Like millions of people, you want to find the best things for the best price. There are so many choices that it can be difficult to find the things you need and want. Here's where technology comes in! Popular websites like Facebook and Twitter aren't just for social networking anymore.

2 The websites Facebook and Twitter are popular because people can connect to friends and get their most recent news. But people also use these sites as powerful shopping tools. Members can ask about an item and then get opinions from people they trust. Twitterers can also search for news from other users and then find stores nearby that sell the item.

3 Another helpful shopping tool is the smartphone. Smartphone users can go into a store, find an item they like, and then type the item number into their smartphone. They can compare prices, read reviews, and make better decisions about their purchase. Many people find a better price online or at another store. People often want to see and touch an item before they buy. They can do just that – and pay a lower price, too.

4 But you don't have to be a Facebook or Twitter member or have a smartphone to find a bargain. Websites like Shopzilla compare prices, give reviews, and find stores near you with the best bargains. Google does all these things but also lets you buy items directly through its site. Be a smart shopper. The information you need is at your fingertips!

A Read the article. Answer these questions. Then write the number of the paragraph where you find each answer.

- How are Shopzilla and Google similar?
- What are Twitter users called?
- How do smartphones help find bargains?
- What are two social networking sites?

B According to the article, which shopping tools do these things? Check (✓) the correct boxes.

	Facebook	Twitter	Smartphone	Shopzilla	Google
1. get opinions from friends	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
2. find product reviews	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

5. buy items directly	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

C CLASS ACTIVITY Read your group's list to the class. Find out the class favorites.

5 PRONUNCIATION

Learning Objective: notice and use intonation in questions; learn to sound natural when asking questions

A [CD 1, Track 34]

- Books closed. Use your voice and gestures to demonstrate intonation. Explain that intonation is the rise and fall of the voice.
- Play the audio program. After each question, ask: "Is the voice going up or down?"
- Elicit or explain the rule. Yes/no questions have rising intonation, and Wh-questions have falling intonation.
- Books open. Play the audio program again. Ss repeat the questions. Ask different Ss to read the questions and check their intonation.

TIP If Ss repeat things as a group, it's hard to hear if they're using correct pronunciation or intonation. Therefore, check some individual Ss' pronunciation.

B Pair work

- Explain the task. Model the questions using correct intonation.
- Ss work in pairs. Go around the class and check individual Ss' use of intonation.
- Option: Ss look back at the Conversation on page 23 and mark (with arrows) rising or falling intonation above the questions. Ss then practice the conversation again in pairs, paying special attention to intonation.

6 SPEAKING

Learning Objective: talk about entertainment; discuss likes and dislikes

A Group work

- Write two example questions on the board, e.g.:
Do you like TV?
What kind of TV programs do you like?
- Ask different Ss to answer the questions.
- Explain the task. Ss work individually to write five questions. Go around the class and give help as needed.
- Ss take turns asking their questions in small groups. Set a time limit of five to seven minutes.
- Go around the class and listen to Ss' responses.
- Option: Encourage Ss to give longer responses (e.g., No, I don't, but I love . . . , I'm a big fan of . . . , I prefer . . .).

B Group work

- Ss work in small groups. One S leads the discussion to make sure everybody speaks (e.g., What's your favorite . . . ? What about you, . . . ? What do you think, . . . ? It's your turn to ask a question.). Another S records the answers.

- The S who recorded the answers reads the responses, and the group decides the favorites. Then the Ss complete their charts.

TIP Assigning each S in the group a role (e.g., note-taker, leader, English monitor, reporter) encourages all Ss to participate.

C Class activity

- Write these expressions on the board:
Our favorite . . . is . . .
We all like . . .
We don't agree on . . .
- Explain that Ss can use these expressions to report their group's favorites.
- One S from each group reports the results to the class. Another S from each group writes the results on the board.
- Discuss the favorites as a class.

For more practice with yes/no questions, play Twenty Questions – download it from the website.

9 GRAMMAR FOCUS

Learning Objective: practice would and verb + to + verb

 [CD 1, Track 38]

Would

- Refer Ss to the Conversation on page 25. Ask: "How does Dave invite Susan?" Write his question on the board: Would you like to go?
- Explain that we use Would you like to . . . ? for polite invitations. It is more polite than Do you want to . . . ?
- Ask Ss to find Susan's response. Ask: "What does she say?" Write it on the board:
Thanks. I'd love to.
- Point out that I'd = I would. Explain that there are different ways to accept an invitation. Susan uses one. Add two more to the board:
Yes, I would.
Yes, I'd really like to (go).
- Play the audio program for the first column in the Grammar Focus box. Ss read silently.

Verb + to + verb

- Refer Ss again to the Conversation on page 25. Susan invites Dave to have dinner at 6:00, but he doesn't accept. Ask: "What were his words?" Write them on the board: Uh, I'd like to but I have to work late.

- Explain that we often use the structure verb + to + verb when making excuses. Focus Ss' attention on the Grammar Focus box. Elicit examples.
- Play the audio program for the second and third columns.

A

- Explain the task. Questions 1–3 require an acceptance or a refusal. Questions 4–6 require an invitation.
- Ss work individually. Go around the class and check their answers. If you notice common problems, stop and go over them with the class.

B Pair work

- Explain the task. Ss work in pairs. They take turns asking and answering the questions.

C Pair work

- Explain the task. With Ss, brainstorm three things to do. Model inviting a S to do one of those things. Your S partner uses some of the follow-up questions.
- Have Ss first think of three real or imaginary things they would like to do. Then they practice inviting each other. Remind Ss to use Would you like to . . . ? and to include follow-up questions.

10 WRITING

Learning Objective: write and respond to text messages

A

- Point out that Ss practiced oral invitations. Now they will make text message invitations.
- Focus Ss' attention on the text message. Ask Ss to guess its meaning. (Answer: Would you like to see a movie tonight?)
- Discuss abbreviations. Explain that people use the abbreviations because there is very little space on cell phone screens. Elicit the words the text message abbreviations stand for. (Answers: 2 = to, c = see, 2nite = tonight).
- Ask the class: "Do you ever write text messages? Who do you write to? What do you write about?"

B Group work

- Ss work in groups of three. Ss work individually to write a message to the other two Ss in their group.
- Ss exchange messages with the other Ss in the group. They read each message and write a response (e.g., sounds GR8!). Then they return the responses. (Note: If Ss can't think of an invitation, encourage them to look at the Grammar Focus or Conversation on page 25 for ideas.)
- Option: In Ss' responses, they write questions asking for more information. They continue to exchange and return responses, answering questions and asking for more information until they accept or refuse the invitations.
- Option: If Ss have cell phones, they can practice sending text messages in class or for homework.

11 INTERCHANGE 4

See page T-118 for teaching notes.

12 READING

Learning Objectives: read and discuss an article about a singer; develop skills in scanning a time line

- Books closed. Draw these diagrams on the board:

- Ss brainstorm ideas in pairs. If they have difficulty, suggest possible topics (e.g., hit songs, age, full/real name, nationality). Then Ss come to the board and write things they know or would like to know in the correct diagram. Don't correct Ss if they are wrong. Just correct their language.
- Books open. Point out that the time line shows the history of Fergie's life.
- Focus Ss' attention on the pictures. Ask different Ss to read the captions aloud.
- Allow Ss two minutes to scan the article quickly and find the dates for the pictures. (Answers: 2010, 1984, 2004) Remind Ss not to read the whole article but to look quickly for key words (e.g., World Cup, TV show Kids Incorporated, Black Eyed Peas).

- For a new way to introduce this Reading, try
- Cloud Prediction – download it from the website.

WORD POWER

Learning Objective: learn vocabulary for discussing the family

A

- Write the word family in a circle on the board. Then write the words mother and father around the circle.
- In pairs, Ss brainstorm words for family members and make a list. Then they compare lists with another pair. Go around the class and note the words on their lists.

TIP

To avoid teaching words Ss already know, start by asking Ss the words they know. Then teach any remaining vocabulary.

- Ask Ss to find Sam and circle his picture. Then ask: "Who is Yumiko?" (Answer: his wife) Ask Ss to write wife under Yumiko's picture and check (✓) wife in the vocabulary list.
- Ss complete the exercise in pairs. Go over the answers with the class and check pronunciation.

Answers

grandfather and grandmother (Marta) father (Chris) and mother aunt and uncle (Manuel)
Sam (husband) and his wife (Yumiko) brother and sister-in-law (Liza) cousin (Teresa) son and daughter (Lucy) niece (Kelly) and nephew

- As needed, teach other family words (e.g., great-grandfather, great-grandmother, grandson, granddaughter, son, stepbrother, stepsister, only child, twins, parents, ex-wife, ex-husband). Use pictures to present additional vocabulary.
- Option: For more practice, ask questions about another person in the family tree (e.g., Donna). Possible questions include: Who is Donna's husband? Who is her sister-in-law?

In Unit 5, students discuss families, typical families, and family life. In Cycle 1, they talk about their own and other families using the present continuous. In Cycle 2, they discuss facts about families using quantifiers.

B

- Explain the task. Ss draw their family trees individually. Point out that single Ss can include their grandparents, parents, brothers, and sisters, while married Ss can include their husband or wife, children, and grandchildren.
- Draw your family tree on the board while Ss complete the task.
- Model the task by describing your own family. Then encourage Ss to ask you questions. If needed, present or review words such as married, single, divorced, widowed, or deceased.
- Ss complete the task in pairs or small groups. Go around the room and encourage Ss to ask follow-up questions (e.g., How old is he? What does he do?).
- Elicit interesting things Ss learned about their partners.
- Option: Ask Ss to bring in pictures of their family. Ss show each other family photos in small groups. Encourage them to add two pieces of information for each photo (e.g., This is my brother. He's 27, and he's a lawyer.).

TIP

To personalize the class and make the language more meaningful, encourage Ss to bring their own materials to class.

To review the vocabulary of family, try Picture Dictation – download it from the website. Ask Ss to draw a family tree while you say: "Amanda has one brother and one sister. Her brother, Edward, is married to Jean. They have three children. Amanda's sister, Mary, is married to Mike. They have one daughter. Amanda has a husband. His name is Charlie."

5 GRAMMAR FOCUS

Learning Objectives: practice the present continuous; ask and answer questions using the present continuous

[CD 1, Track 44]

Simple present vs. present continuous

- Draw this chart on the board:

Usually Right now

Sue's sister

Sue's brother

- Focus Ss' attention on the Conversation on page 31. Ask: "What does Sue's sister do? What is she doing right now?" (Answers: She works for the government. She's working on a secret project.) Complete the chart. Repeat the procedure for Sue's brother. (Answers: He's a wildlife photographer. He's traveling in the Amazon.)
- Elicit or explain the difference between the two tenses (simple present = habitual actions; present continuous = actions that are happening right now).
- Compare the formation of the two tenses:
She works. (subject + verb)
She is working. (subject + be + verb + -ing)

Present continuous questions and statements

- Focus Ss' attention on the Conversation on page 31. Ask: "Why can't Rita meet Sue's family?" Elicit the answers, and write them on the board:
Sue's sister is not working in the U.S. this month.
Sue's brother is traveling in the Amazon right now.
- Focus Ss' attention on the Grammar Focus box. Elicit the rule for forming yes/no and Wh-questions in the present continuous:
Be + subject + verb + -ing?
(Wh-question) + be + subject + verb + -ing?

6 DISCUSSION

12 READING

Stay-at-Home Dads

Read the title of the article. Then check (✓) the question you think the interviews will answer. ☐ Why do men decide to stay at home with their children? ☐ What happens when both parents work?

Families in the U.S. are changing. One important change is that many fathers are staying home with their children. They take care of the kids, and their wives go to work. Modern Family magazine asked three stay-at-home dads the question "What's it like being a stay-at-home dad?"

William Chan

I'm having a great time!
When the kids are in school, I do housework. Our youngest child goes to school part-time. When I pick her up, I love the one-on-one time with her. Then, when my two sons get home from school, we all play together. Why do I stay home? Well, I wasn't happy at my job. It was pretty stressful, in fact.

Daniel Evans

It's a challenge. We have two young children. They don't go to school yet. I never have time for myself! That's not easy. But my kids are growing up so fast. I really want to spend time with them when they're young. Also, my wife loves her job. I think most stay-at-home dads say the same thing: It's hard, but it's worth it.

Roberto Garcia

In my neighborhood, there aren't many dads in the park with their kids on weekdays. Nearly all of the parents are moms. I had a stressful job before and didn't have a lot of free time. I hated it. We have a daughter, and now I'm spending more time with her. I love that. I'm enjoying my freedom from work, but I'm also working very hard!

How often do you exercise?

Cycle 1, Exercises 1–9

1 SNAPSHOT

Learning Objectives: talk about sports and fitness; learn sports and fitness vocabulary

- Books closed. Introduce the topics of sport and fitness. Ss brainstorm sports and fitness activities. Write Ss' ideas in two columns on the board:

Sports	Fitness activities
baseball	jogging
soccer	weight training
basketball	walking

TIP To make new vocabulary easy for your Ss to copy, make a vocabulary list on one side of the board. Add new words to the list throughout the class.

- Ask Ss to guess the sports and fitness activities people from the U.S. like best. (Answers: basketball, walking)
- Books open. Ss look at the Snapshot and compare their guesses. Ask: "Who guessed right?"

2 WORD POWER

Learning Objectives: Discuss types of sports and exercise; learn collocations with do, go, and play

A

- Go over the activities in the chart. In pairs, Ss match the activities to the icons. Give help as needed.
- Explain and model the task. Ask: "What age groups like aerobics?" Point out that there is no correct answer.
- While Ss complete the task individually, write this conversation on the board:
A: What age groups like (aerobics)?
B: I think it's popular with (young adults).
A: I agree OR I don't really agree. I think it's popular with (teens).
- Model the conversation with one or two Ss. Then Ss use the model conversation to compare answers in pairs.

In Unit 6, students discuss sports, exercise, and leisure activities. In Cycle 1, they talk about sports and exercise using adverbs of frequency. In Cycle 2, they talk about leisure activities using questions with how and short answers.

- Elicit or explain any new vocabulary. Help Ss with the pronunciation of difficult words (e.g., weight, treadmill). If needed, explain that American football is different from international football. Players use their hands, throw and run with the ball, and wear safety equipment. In the U.S, international football is called soccer.

Vocabulary

softball: a sport similar to baseball but with a bigger, softer ball weight training: lifting weights to become stronger treadmill: a machine for walking or running stretching: extending or making your arms and legs longer

- Go over the discussion questions and tasks.
- Ss complete the tasks individually. Go around the class and give help as needed. Then elicit Ss' answers.

B Pair work

- Present the rules for these collocations:
go + activities ending in -ing, except weight training play + games, such as sports played with a ball do + fitness activities and individual exercises
- Ss complete the task in pairs. To check answers, write the verbs do, go, and play on the board. Ask different Ss to write the answers. Give help as needed.

Answers

do	go	play
aerobics	bicycling	golf

- Ss write four statements in pairs. Then they practice them. Go around the class and check Ss' intonation.

6 SPEAKING

Learning Objective: talk about fitness using How often and adverbs of frequency

A Group work

- Focus Ss' attention on the title. Explain that a poll has two parts. First everyone answers the same questions. Then you compare and summarize the answers.

- In small groups, Ss take turns asking each other questions. One S takes notes. Go around the class and give help as needed.

B Group work

- Ss compare the results of their poll and decide who has a good fitness program. Then one S in each group reports the information to the class.

7 LISTENING

Learning Objective: develop skills in listening for key words and specific information

A [CD 2, Track 5]

- Set the scene. Three people are talking about their favorite evening activities. Have Ss brainstorm things people do in the evening.
- Explain the task. Ss listen only for favorite activities and complete the first column in the chart. Write the chart on the board.
- Play the audio program. Ss complete the task individually and compare their answers in pairs. Ask different Ss to write the answers on the board.
- Explain the task. Ss listen only for how often Justin, Carrie, and Marcos do the activities. Ss complete the second column.
- Play the audio program again. Ss complete the task individually and compare their answers in pairs. Ask different Ss to write the answers on the board.

TIP If Ss have difficulty understanding the audio program, try to find out where they have difficulty. Replay that part of the program and ask what they hear.

AudioScript

Carrie So, what do you usually do in the evening, Justin?
Justin I exercise a lot. I like to go swimming after work.
Carrie Yeah? How often do you go swimming?
Justin Twice a week – on Tuesdays and Thursdays.

Carrie Well, you are in great shape.
Justin Thanks!
Marcos You're in great shape, too, Carrie.
Carrie Oh, thanks, Marcos. I usually go to the gym and do yoga in the evenings. I love it! My friends and I take a yoga class there.
Justin How often do you go?
Carrie Three times a week. And what about you, Marcos? Do you ever go to the gym in the evenings?
Marcos Actually, I don't exercise very much. But I go bowling about twice a month. But I'm not very good.

Answers

	Favorite activity	How often?
Justin	swimming	twice a week
Carrie	yoga	three times a week
Marcos	bowling	twice a month

B [CD 2, Track 6]

- Play the audio program. Ss listen to find out who is most similar to them. Then they discuss their answers in pairs or small groups.

8 DISCUSSION

Learning Objective: discuss sports and athletes using adverbs of frequency

Group work

- Focus Ss' attention on the picture. Ask: "Who is he? What is he doing? Who is she? What is she doing?" (Answers: Lionel Messi, playing soccer; Serena Williams, playing tennis)

- Explain that you want Ss to discuss the questions for ten minutes. Point out that it's important to speak fluently, so it's OK to make errors.
- Ss take turns asking and answering the questions in small groups. Go around the class and ask follow-up questions.

9 WRITING

Learning Objective: write about favorite activities using the simple present and adverbs of frequency

A

- Explain the task. Point out that Ss can write about any favorite activities, not just sports. Ss read the example paragraph silently.
- Ss make notes about favorite activities individually.
- Ss write a paragraph based on their notes. Remind Ss to include one false piece of information.

! For a new way to teach this Writing, try Pass the Paper – download it from the website.

B Group work

- Explain the task and read the example question. Ss read each other's descriptions and write guesses about which activity is false. Then they ask each other to check their guesses.

End of Cycle 1

See the Supplementary Resources chart at the beginning of this unit for additional teaching materials and student activities related to this Cycle.

Cycle 2, Exercises 10–14

10 CONVERSATION

Learning Objectives: practice a conversation about fitness; see questions with how and short answers in context

A [CD 2, Track 7]

- Ss cover the text and look at the picture. Elicit ideas and vocabulary.
- Write this focus question on the board:
Do Ruth and Keith usually play tennis together?
- Then play the audio program and elicit the answer. (Answer: no)
- Write these focus questions on the board:
 - How often does Keith do aerobics?
 - How well does Keith play tennis?
 - How good is Ruth at tennis?
- Play the audio program again and elicit the answers. (Answers: 1. twice a week 2. pretty well 3. not very good)
- Option: Have Ss close their eyes as they listen to the audio program.

- Ss read the conversation silently. Then they practice the conversation in pairs.

B [CD 2, Track 8]

- Read the focus question and ask Ss to guess who wins. Then play the audio program. Ss listen to find the answer.

AudioScript

Ruth Good game, Keith.
Keith Thanks. You, too. And congratulations on the win.
You play pretty well.
Ruth Oh, no, not really.
Keith How often do you play?
Ruth Once or twice a year. I'm just lucky today, I guess.
Want to play another game?
Keith Um ... sure. After a five-minute break.

Answers

Ruth is the winner.

8 DISCUSSION Sports and athletes

GROUP WORK Take turns asking and answering these questions.

Who's your favorite male athlete? Why?
Who's your favorite female athlete? Why?
Who are three famous athletes in your country?
What's your favorite sports team? Why?
Do you ever watch sports on TV? Which ones?
Do you ever watch sports live? Which ones?
What are two sports you don't like?
What sport or activity do you want to try?

9 WRITING About favorite activities

A Write about your favorite activities. Include one activity that is false.

I love to exercise! I usually work out every day. I get up early in the morning and go jogging for about 30 minutes. Then I often go to the gym and do yoga. Sometimes I play tennis in the afternoon. I play ...

B GROUP WORK Take turns reading your descriptions. Can you guess the false information?

"You don't play tennis in the afternoon. Right?"

10 CONVERSATION I'm a real fitness freak.

A Listen and practice.

Ruth: You're in great shape, Keith.
Keith: Thanks. I guess I'm a real fitness freak.
Ruth: How often do you work out?
Keith: Well, I do aerobics twice a week. And I play tennis every week.
Ruth: Tennis? That sounds like a lot of fun.
Keith: Oh, do you want to play sometime?
Ruth: Uh, ... how well do you play?
Keith: Pretty well, I guess.
Ruth: Well, all right. But I'm not very good.
Keith: No problem. I'll give you a few tips.

11 GRAMMAR FOCUS

Learning Objective: practice questions with how and short answers

[CD 2, Track 9]

Questions with how

- Books closed. Write these questions and answers on the board in two columns:

A	B
How often do you work out?	Pretty well.
How long do you spend at the gym?	Twice a week.
How well do you play tennis?	Not very good.
How good are you at sports?	Two hours a week.

- Ss match the questions in A with the answers in B.
- Books open. Ss check their answers in the Grammar Focus box.
- Focus Ss' attention on the first column of the Grammar Focus box. Elicit or explain the difference between how often and how long (how often = with what frequency, how long = in how much time).
- Focus Ss' attention on the second column. Ask: "How are how well and how good different?" (They have the same meaning, but good is an adjective and well is an adverb. Use how good with be and how well with other verbs.)

Short answers

- Point out that answering in complete sentences sounds unnatural. Therefore, people use short answers.
- Play the audio program.

A

- Explain the task. Ss work individually to complete the questions. Check Ss' work as they finish. Ask Ss with correct questions to write them on the board.
- Ss check answers against the board. Then they practice the conversations in pairs.

- Play the audio program again. Have Ss identify the four people.
- Go over answers with the class.

Jean Wow!

Phil Do you like sports, Jean?

Jean Oh, yes. I like to exercise. But I don't watch sports very much, and I never buy sports magazines.

Phil How much time do you spend exercising?

Jean Well, I guess I exercise about two or three hours a day. I do aerobics at home three times a week, and the other days I go swimming. Oh, and sometimes I go bicycling.

Phil That's great! Sally, you're in great shape, too.

Sally Thanks. I go to the gym six days a week.

Jean Six days a week? Wow!

Sally I love the gym. I run on the treadmill and then do weight training for about an hour.

Dan And what about you, Phil?

14 READING

Learning Objectives: read and complete a health and fitness quiz; develop skills in skimming and making inferences

- Read the title. Ask: "What is this? How is it different from a quiz in class?" Elicit ideas.
- Tell Ss to look over the quiz. Ask: "Where can you find this kind of quiz? What is the quiz about?" (Answers: in a magazine or newspaper, health and fitness)
- Point out the pre-reading question. Then Ss skim the questions in the quiz. Ask Ss to write down the score they think they're going to get.

A

- Explain the task. Read the first question and ask Ss to check (✓) the answer that is true for them.
- Ss read the quiz individually and check (✓) their answers.
- Option: Ss work in pairs and take turns asking each other the questions. They complete the quiz for each other.
- Go around the class and elicit or explain any new vocabulary.

Vocabulary

servings: portions of food junk food: food that is not good for you vitamins: nutritional supplements, usually in a pill average: medium; usual

- Ss add up their points. Then they read the Rate yourself section.
- Ask: "Are the points the same as you guessed? More than you guessed? Fewer than you guessed? Do you agree with your score? Why or why not?"
- Option: Ss give the quiz to friends or family members for homework. Then they share the results in class.

B Group work

- Ss compare their scores in small groups. Ask Ss to list five things they can do to improve their health and fitness. Point out that they can use ideas from the quiz.
- Each group joins another group and shares ideas. Then elicit ideas from the groups.

Units 5-6 Progress check

SELF-ASSESSMENT

Learning Objectives: reflect on one's learning; identify areas that need improvement

- Ask: "What did you learn in Units 5 and 6?" Elicit Ss' answers.
- Ss complete the Self-assessment. Encourage them to be honest, and point out they will not get a bad grade if they check (✓) a little.

- Ss move on to the Progress check exercises. You can have Ss complete them in class or for homework, using one of these techniques:
 1. Ask Ss to complete all the exercises.
 2. Ask Ss: "What do you need to practice?" Then assign exercises based on their answers.
 3. Ask Ss to choose and complete exercises based on their Self-assessment.

1 LISTENING

Learning Objective: assess one's ability to understand and describe present activities

A [CD 2, Track 11]

- Explain the task. Ss will hear four sounds of people doing different things. Ss guess what the person is doing and write sentences using the present continuous.
- Model the task. Ask Ss to close their eyes. Then do something that makes a distinctive sound (e.g., write on the board, sharpen your pencil). Ask: "What am I doing?" Ss answer in the present continuous (e.g., You're writing on the board.).

- Play the audio program once or twice. Ss listen and complete the chart. Help with vocabulary as needed.

Possible answers

1. Someone is playing a video game.
2. Someone is exercising.
3. Someone is bowling.
4. Someone is driving.

B Pair work

- Explain the task. Model the example conversation with a S. Elicit different ways of agreeing and disagreeing.
- Ss compare answers in pairs. Go around the class and check Ss' use of the present continuous.

2 GAME

Learning Objectives: assess one's ability to ask and answer questions about present activities; assess one's ability to describe present activities

Group work

- Explain the task. Ss work in small groups. One S chooses a person in the room. The other Ss take turns asking present continuous yes/no questions until they guess the person's identity. The S who guesses correctly has the next turn.

- Model the example conversation. Take the role of Student A and ask other Ss to take the roles of Students B, C, D, and E.
- Ss play the game in small groups.

SURVEY

Learning Objectives: assess one's ability to describe present activities; assess one's ability to describe family life; assess one's ability to ask for and give personal information; assess one's ability to give information about quantities

A Group work

- Explain the task and read the instructions aloud.
- Ss read the questions in small groups. Then, as a group, they add two more yes/no questions about family life. Encourage Ss to use both the simple present and the present continuous.
- Explain the task. Ss take turns asking and answering the questions. They write the number of yes and no answers in the correct columns. Remind Ss to include their own answers.

B Group work

- Explain the task. For each question, Ss add up the number of yes/no responses in their group. Then they write a sentence to describe the group's responses using determiners (e.g., most, some, a few, all).
- Ss complete the task in groups. Then they read their sentences to the class.
- Option: Complete the activity as a class.

DISCUSSION

Learning Objectives: assess one's ability to ask and answer questions about free time; assess one's ability to ask and answer questions about routines and abilities

Group work

- Explain the task. Ss choose three questions and check (✓) them individually. Then they ask each other the questions in small groups. When someone answers "yes," the S must add at least one follow-up question, including how questions (e.g., how well, how often, how good).

- Option: Ss think of their own questions beginning with Do you ever . . . ?
- Ask four Ss to read the example conversation. Elicit other possible follow-up questions.
- Ss complete the task. Go around the class and check for use of follow-up questions.

WHAT'S NEXT?

Learning Objective: become more involved in one's learning

- Focus Ss' attention on the Self-assessment again. Ask: "How well can you do these things now?"

- Ask Ss to underline one thing they need to review. Ask: "What did you underline? How can you review it?"
- If needed, plan additional activities or reviews based on Ss' answers.

3 SURVEY Family life

A GROUP WORK Add two more yes/no questions about family life to the chart. Then ask and answer the questions in groups. Write down the number of "yes" and "no" answers. (Remember to include yourself.)

	Number of "yes" answers	Number of "no" answers
1. Are you living with your family?
2. Do your parents both work?
3. Do you eat dinner with your family?
4. Are you working these days?
5. Are you married?
6. Do you have any children?

B GROUP WORK Write up the results of the survey. Then tell the class.

1. In our group, most people are living with their family.
2. Few of our parents both work.

4 DISCUSSION Routines and abilities

GROUP WORK Choose three questions. Then ask your questions in groups. When someone answers "yes," think of other questions to ask.

Do you ever ... ?

☐ sing karaoke

☐ listen to English songs

☐ chat online

☐ do weight training

☐ play golf

☐ play video games

☐ cook for friends

☐ go swimming

☐ watch old movies

A: Do you ever sing karaoke?

B: Yes, I often do.

C: What song do you like to sing?

B: "I Love Rock 'n' Roll."

A: When do you sing karaoke?

B: In the evenings.

C: How often do you go?

B: Every weekend!

D: How well do you sing?

B: Not very well. But I have a lot of fun!

WHAT'S NEXT?

Look at your Self-assessment again. Do you need to review anything?

Meg: Oh, I had a great time. I went to a karaoke bar and sang with some friends on Saturday.

Rick: How fun! Did you go to Lucky's?

Meg: No, we didn't. We went to that new place downtown. How about you? Did you go anywhere?

Rick: No, I didn't go anywhere all weekend. I just stayed home and studied for today's Spanish test.

Meg: Our test is today? I forgot about that!

Rick: Don't worry. You always get an A.

Cycle 1, Exercises 1–8

1 SNAPSHOT

Learning Objective: learn vocabulary for discussing leisure activities

- Books closed. Ask: "What do you do in your free time?" Help with vocabulary as needed. Write Ss' responses on the board.
- Option: Ask Ss to guess the top eight leisure activities in the U.S. Later, Ss compare their ideas with the Snapshot.
- Books open. Ask different Ss to read the leisure activities aloud. Point out that these are the top eight leisure activities in the U.S. Elicit or explain any new vocabulary.

In Unit 7, students discuss daily, leisure, and vacation activities. In Cycle 1, they talk about daily and leisure activities using the simple past with both regular and irregular verbs. In Cycle 2, they talk about vacations using the past tense of be.

- Ask: "Does anything on this list surprise you? What?" Elicit Ss' answers.
- Read and explain the three tasks. Point out that, for the last task, Ss should list the activities starting with their favorite.
- Ss complete the tasks individually. Go around the class and give help as needed.
- Elicit Ss' responses.
- Option: Use Ss' responses to make a list of the top eight activities for the class.
- For a new way to practice the Snapshot vocabulary, try Vocabulary Steps – download it from the website.

2 CONVERSATION

Learning Objectives: practice a conversation about weekend activities; see the simple past in context

A [CD 2, Track 12]

- Set the scene. Rick and Meg are talking about their weekends. Ask Ss to use the pictures to predict what each person did. Elicit or explain vocabulary in the pictures (e.g., karaoke).
- Option: Ss list all the words they can see in the pictures. Find out who has the most words.
- Books closed. Write these focus questions on the board:
 - What did Meg do on Saturday?
 - What did Rick do?
- Play the audio program. Ss listen for the answers. Then elicit the answers. (Answers: 1. She went to a karaoke bar and sang with some friends. 2. He stayed home all weekend and studied for the Spanish test.)
- Books open. Play the audio program again. Ss listen and read silently.
- Ss practice the conversation in pairs. Go around the class and give help as needed.
- For a new way to practice this Conversation, try the Disappearing Dialog – download it from the website.

B [CD 2, Track 13]

- Read the focus question aloud. Ask Ss to guess. Write some of their ideas on the board.
- Play the audio program. Ss work individually. Then go over the answer with the class.

AudioScript

Rick So, Meg, what did you do on Sunday?

Meg I stayed home in the morning. I just watched TV and read.

Rick How about in the afternoon?

Meg Oh, I worked. I have a part-time job at the university bookstore.

Rick I didn't know you had a job.

Meg Yeah, I'm a cashier there. I work every Sunday from 2:00 to 5:00.

Answers

She stayed home in the morning. She watched TV and read. She worked in the afternoon.

- For more practice talking about last weekend's activities, play the Chain Game – download it from the website.

TIP To help Ss who are weak at listening, write the answers on the board. That way, they can see the answers.

GRAMMAR FOCUS

Learning Objective: practice simple past questions, short answers, and regular and irregular verbs

[CD 2, Track 14]

Simple past questions with did

- Focus Ss' attention on the Conversation on page 44. Ask Ss to find three questions with did. Then write them on the board. (Answers: What did you do last weekend? Did you go to Lucky's? Did you go anywhere?)

Use a different color for target features (e.g., did + verb). This helps Ss visualize the grammar pattern.

- Point out the questions in the Grammar Focus box. Elicit the rules for forming yes/no and Wh-questions in the simple past:
Did + subject + verb?
Wh-question + did + subject + verb?

What's your neighborhood like?

Cycle 1, Exercises 1-6

In Unit 8, students discuss neighborhoods. In Cycle 1, they talk about places using there is/there are and prepositions of place. In Cycle 2, they talk about neighborhood problems using count and noncount nouns with how many and how much.

1 WORD POWER

Learning Objective: learn vocabulary for discussing places in the neighborhood

A

- Introduce the topic of neighborhoods. Ask: "What places do you need to find in a neighborhood?" Elicit Ss' answers and write them on the board.
- Elicit the names of places Ss see in the picture (e.g., laundromat, library, barbershop).
- Model the task. Ask "What's a barbershop?" Tell Ss to say "stop" when you read the correct definition. Read out possible answers (e.g., It's a place where you wash and dry clothes. It's a place where you buy food.) until the Ss say "stop."
- Ss match the words and definitions individually. Then go over answers with the class.

Answers

1. d 2. b 3. a 4. g 5. c 6. e 7. f

- Ss take turns asking and answering the questions in pairs. Go around the class and give help as needed.
- Option: To make the activity more challenging, Ss cover the text and use only the picture to ask and answer questions.
- Go over any errors you noticed, including pronunciation errors.

2 CONVERSATION

Learning Objectives: practice a conversation between neighbors; see there is/there are and one/any/some in context

[CD 2, Track 23]

- Books closed. Write this question on the board:
When you move to a new neighborhood, what do you need to find?
- Elicit answers from the class and write them on the board.
- Set the scene. Jack just moved into a new neighborhood, and he is looking for two things. What are they? Play the audio program.

B Pair work

- Present the example definition for clothing store. Then elicit more possible definitions from the class (e.g., It's a place where you buy jeans.) and write them on the board.
- Ss write definitions for each place in pairs. Go around the class and give help as needed.

Possible answers

Place	It's a place where you . . .
clothing store	find new fashions
drugstore	buy medicine and toiletries
Internet café	send emails and surf the net
music store	buy CDs and DVDs
post office	get stamps and mail letters

C Group work

- Model the task. Each pair from part B joins another pair. Pairs take turns giving definitions and guessing places.

- Go over answers with the class. (Answer: He's looking for a grocery store and a laundromat.)
- Books open. Elicit information about the picture. Ask: "What other place does Mrs. Day suggest? Why?" Then play the audio program again. Ss listen and find the answers. (Answer: She suggests a barbershop because Jack needs a haircut.)
- Play the audio program again. Ss listen and read the conversation silently.
- Ss practice the conversation in pairs.

GRAMMAR FOCUS

Learning Objectives: ask and answer questions with there is/there are; practice using one, any, and some; practice prepositions of place

 [CD 2, Track 24]

Is there/Are there?

- Before class, write these words on nine large cards:

is	There	a laundromat
one	are	grocery stores
any	some	near/around here

TIP Cards are useful for helping Ss visualize grammar in an active way. They work well with grammar including word order and substitution.

- Focus Ss' attention on the Conversation on page 50. Ask: "What question does Jack ask beginning with is there?" Elicit the question. Then ask four Ss to come to the front of the class. Have them stand in line holding up these cards:
S1: is S2: there
S3: a laundromat S4: near/around here
- Ask: "What question does Jack ask beginning with are there?" Elicit the question. Then ask five Ss to stand in line holding up these cards:
S1: are S2: there S3: any S4: grocery stores S5: near/around here
- Focus Ss' attention on the two questions in the Grammar Focus box. Elicit the rule for forming questions with is there and are there.
Is there + a/an + singular noun + near/around here?
Are there + any + plural noun + near/around here?

One and some

- Ask four Ss to hold up these cards:
S1: there S2: is
S3: a laundromat S4: near/around here
- Point out that singular nouns and its article such as a laundromat can be replaced by one. Ask another S to take the card one and replace S3.
- Repeat the activity with plural nouns. This time, replace grocery stores with some.
- Play the audio program.

Prepositions

- Elicit or explain the meaning of the prepositions. Use the map. Ask: "What places are on Elm Street?" (Answer: King Plaza Hotel, Frank's Café, Jamison Hotel) Ask Ss about other places using prepositions.
- Option: For more practice visualizing the prepositions in an active way, ask Ss to stand across from each other, next to the wall, near the board, etc.

A

- Explain the task and read the example questions. Ss write questions individually. Point out that there should be a preposition in each question.
- Ss compare their questions in small groups. They read out their questions and check for grammatical accuracy.
- Go around the class and give help as needed. Ask three or four Ss with correct questions to write them on the board.

Possible answers

All questions should follow these patterns:
Is there + a singular noun + a preposition + a place?
(e.g., Is there a bank across from the hotel?)
Are there any + plural noun + a preposition + a place?
(e.g., Are there any hotels on Elm Street?)

B Pair work

- Model the task two or three times using the map and the questions on the board:
T: Is there a pay phone around here?
S1: Yes, there is. There's one across from the gas station.
T: Are there any gas stations on Maple Avenue?
S2: No, there aren't. But there's one on Main Street.

TIP To make sure that Ss understand instructions, always model the task at least twice. If possible, model it with different Ss each time.

- Ss take turns asking and answering their questions in pairs. Go around the class and give help as needed.
-  For a new way to teach this Grammar Focus, try the Picture Dictation – download it from the website. Describe a town or city center to your Ss. Include streets and places.

A: Is there a pay phone around here?

B: Yes, there is. There's one across from the gas station.

4 PRONUNCIATION Reduction of there is/there are

A Listen and practice. Notice how there is and there are are reduced in conversation, except for short answers.

Is there a laundromat near here?

Yes, there is. There's one across from the shopping center.

Are there any grocery stores around here?

Yes, there are. There are some on Pine Street.

B Practice the questions and answers in Exercise 3, part B again.

6 LISTENING What are you looking for?

A Listen to hotel guests ask about places to visit. Complete the chart.

Place	Location	Interesting?
		Yes	No
Hard Rock Cafe
Science Museum

B PAIR WORK Which place sounds the most interesting to you? Why?

4 PRONUNCIATION

Learning Objectives: notice the reduction of there is/there are; learn to sound natural when using there is/there are

A [CD 2, Track 25]

- Play the audio program. Point out the reduced forms. Ask Ss to practice the short conversations using the reductions. Point out that there is is often contracted to there's in writing, but there are is not.

B

- Go over the instructions and model the task.
- Go around the class and give individual feedback on Ss' use of reductions.

TIP It's more important to recognize reductions than to produce them. Don't force Ss to produce reductions if they are not ready.

5 SPEAKING

Learning Objective: ask and answer questions about neighborhoods using is there/are there and one/any/some

Group work

- Model the task. Ask a S: "Is there a good bookstore in your neighborhood?" If the S has difficulty answering, point out the useful expressions box for ideas.

- Option: Point out that people show interest in conversations by adding follow-up questions (e.g., What's the name of the bookstore? Can you buy used books there?).
- Ss complete the task in groups. Go around the class and note the Ss' level of fluency.

6 LISTENING

Learning Objective: develop skills in listening for details

A [CD 2, Track 26]

- Read out the instructions to set the scene. Then play the audio program. Ss listen and complete the Location column in the chart.
- Play the audio program again. Ss listen, decide if the hotel clerk thinks the places are interesting, and check (✓) Yes or No.
- Go over answers with the class.

AudioScript

Clerk Good morning. Can I help you?
 Guest 1 Yes. We need some directions.
 Clerk Sure. What are you looking for?
 Guest 1 Well, first of all, we're looking for the Hard Rock Cafe. How far is it from here?
 Clerk Oh, it's just a few minutes from here – right across from the National Bank.
 Guest 2 The National Bank on Park Avenue?
 Clerk Yes, that's the one.
 Guest 2 Is the Hard Rock Cafe a nice place?
 Clerk Well, I think so. The food is good, and there are some interesting things to look at in the restaurant – like one of Elvis's cars.
 Guest 2 Great! And where is the Science Museum?
 Clerk Well, that's near City Hall.
 Guest 1 Near City Hall. OK, I know where that is. And what's the museum like?
 Clerk Actually, it's not very good. It's small, and there isn't a lot to see there. It's really for young kids.

Guest 1 Oh, then maybe we won't go there.
 Guest 2 Hmm, one last question – is there an aquarium in the city?
 Clerk Yes, there's a very good one. It's only about six blocks from here. It's in the park next to the train station.
 Guest 2 Oh, next to the train station.
 Clerk Yes. Definitely visit the aquarium.
 Guest 1 Great! Thanks a lot.
 Clerk You're welcome. Have a good day.

9 GRAMMAR FOCUS

Learning Objectives: ask and answer questions with count and noncount nouns; practice using quantifiers

 [CD 2, Track 28]

Count and noncount nouns

- Write this chart on the board:

Count nouns	Noncount nouns restaurant	traffic
café	parking

- Ask: "Which nouns take a plural -s ending?" (Answer: restaurant and café) "Which nouns usually don't take a plural -s ending?" (Answer: traffic and parking) Explain that restaurant and café are count nouns because we can count them (e.g., one restaurant, two restaurants). However, we don't count traffic or parking.

 For more practice with count and noncount nouns, play Tic-Tac-Toe – download it from the website.

How many and how much

- Focus Ss' attention on the Conversation on page 53. Have Ss underline questions about noise and crime (e.g., Is there much noise? Is there much crime?). Elicit or explain the rules:
Is there + much + noncount noun?
How much + noncount noun + is there?
- Have Ss underline questions with are there or many. Elicit or explain the rules:
Are there + many + count noun?
How many + count noun + are there?

Quantifiers

- Focus Ss' attention on the Grammar Focus box. Point out that quantifiers are used to describe different amounts of things (e.g., a lot, a few, any, many, much, none).

- Ask Ss to look at the Grammar Focus box. Ask "How are a lot, any, and none similar?" (Answer: They can be used with both count or noncount nouns.)
- Play the audio program.

A

- Model the first question. Ss complete the exercise individually. Then Ss compare their answers in pairs.
- Go over the answers as a class.

Possible answers

- Yes, there's a lot. There's a little. No, there isn't much/any. No, there's none.
- Yes, there are a lot/many. There are a few. No, there aren't any. No, there are none.

- Ss ask and answer the questions in pairs.
- Option: Ss repeat the task with a new partner.

B Group work

- Explain and model the task.
- Ss write questions individually. Then they take turns asking and answering the questions in pairs.

10 INTERCHANGE 8

See page T-122 for teaching notes.

11 WRITING

Learning Objectives: read "roommate wanted" ads; write a "roommate wanted" ad

A

- Ss read the example ads silently. Elicit or explain any new vocabulary.
- Point out written features of an ad (e.g., apt. means apartment, articles a/an and the verb be are usually not included).

B

- Explain the task. Ss write their ads individually. Go around the class and give help as needed.

C Class activity

- Explain the task. While Ss are asking questions, check for correct use of count and noncount nouns.

12 READING

Learning Objectives: read an article; develop skills in scanning and reading for detail

- Ss cover the text and look at the pictures. Ask: "What do you think this Toronto (Canada) neighborhood is like?" Elicit ideas from the class.
- Explain the pre-reading task. Point out that Ss should read quickly and focus on the names of countries only. Set a time limit.

TIP When Ss scan an article, set a time limit. This encourages them to read quickly, focusing only on the task.

- Ss silently scan the article and check (✓) the countries that are not mentioned. (Answers: Greece, Spain, and Uruguay) Elicit answers from the class. Ask where they found the names of countries. (Answer: first paragraph)

12 READING

The World in One Neighborhood

Scan the article. Then check (✓) the countries that are not mentioned.

☐ Brazil ☐ China ☐ Greece ☐ India ☐ Spain ☐ Sudan ☐ Uruguay ☐ Vietnam

1 The sidewalks are crowded with people chatting in Cantonese. An Indian man sells spices from his corner shop. Brazilian music plays loudly from a café. Is it China? India? Brazil? No, it's Kensington Market, a neighborhood in Toronto, Canada. Kensington Market was once an Eastern European and Italian neighborhood, but the area changed along with its residents. First came the Portuguese, then East Asians, then people from Iran, Vietnam, Sudan, Brazil, the Caribbean, and the Middle East.

2 Today, the neighborhood is truly multicultural – you can hear more than 100 languages on its streets. New residents bring many new traditions. “What’s really cool about Kensington is that as soon as you’re in it, you feel as though you’re not in Toronto anymore,” says one resident. “I think what makes Kensington Market unique is that it’s always changing,” says another.

3 It isn’t surprising that the area in and around Kensington Market is becoming a popular place to live. The rents are reasonable, the neighborhood is exciting, and it has good public transportation. There are apartments of every size and for every budget. It has inexpensive stores, fun cafés, fresh fruit and vegetable markets, and restaurants with almost every type of cuisine. As one resident says, “This place is the heart of Toronto.”

A Read the article. Then write the number of each paragraph next to its main idea.

- The residents and their traditions make Kensington Market a multicultural neighborhood.
- People from all over the world live in Kensington Market.
- The neighborhood has many good characteristics.

B Check (✓) the things you can find in Kensington Market.

- | | | |

Units 7-8 Progress check

SELF-ASSESSMENT

Learning Objectives: reflect on one's learning; identify areas that need improvement

- Ask: "What did you learn in Units 7 and 8?" Elicit Ss' answers.
- Ss complete the Self-assessment. Encourage them to be honest, and point out they will not get a bad grade if they check (✓) a little.

- Ss move on to the Progress check exercises. You can have Ss complete them in class or for homework, using one of these techniques:

1. Ask Ss to complete all the exercises.
2. Ask Ss: "What do you need to practice?" Then assign exercises based on their answers.
3. Ask Ss to choose and complete exercises based on their Self-assessment.

1 LISTENING

Learning Objective: assess one's ability to understand descriptions of past events and to describe past events

A [CD 2, Track 29]

- Explain the task.
- Play the audio program. Ss complete the task. Then go over answers with the class.

AudioScript

Detective Hello, Frankie. How was your weekend?
Frankie Oh, it's you, Detective. My weekend? What do you want to know about it?
Detective Now just tell the truth. Where were you at 1:00 P.M. on Saturday?
Frankie Ah ... 1:00 P.M. ... on Saturday? Well, oh, I remember! I was at home. I watched the baseball game on TV. Yeah, the Expos won, four to nothing. It was a great game.
Detective OK ... OK. Where were you at 3:00 P.M.?
Frankie Ah ... at 3:00? Ah, yeah, I went to my karate class like I always do, every Saturday at 3:00.
Detective Karate, huh? Well ... OK. And what did you do after that? At around 5:00 P.M.?
Frankie Ah, oh, yeah, uh, after karate, I visited some old friends of mine - Tom and Mary Kent, on Front Street.
Detective Yeah? Tom and Mary Kent. We'll talk to them. Now, Frankie, 6:00. Where were you at 6:00?
Frankie Oh! Hmm ... at 6:00? Well, I went home at 6:00 ... yeah ... to ... uh ... clean the house.
Detective Yeah, yeah, so you cleaned the house. Now, listen carefully, Frankie. Where were you at 8:00 on Saturday night?

Frankie Uh ... at 8:00? Uh ... oh, yeah ... I remember now. I was at home. I watched a terrific movie on TV. Yeah ... it was great!

Detective Oh, you watched a movie on TV, did you? And what movie did you watch? What was the name of the movie, Frankie? Huh?

Frankie The movie? The name of the movie? Uh, let me think a minute. It was a fantastic movie.

Detective Really?

Frankie No, wait! I remember, it was, uh ... uh ... well, it was exciting.

Detective OK, OK, Frankie ...

Frankie ... and I clearly remember that I went to bed at 10:30, uh, exactly ... Yeah. I watched the movie, and I went to bed right after ... uh ... the movie. Yeah, boy, I was tired - a long day, like I said.

Detective Interesting. Very interesting, Frankie. Come on, Frankie. Let's go down to the police station.

Frankie The police station? Me? Why me? I was at home on Saturday night!

Detective Sure, Frankie, sure. [police siren]

B Pair work

- Ss retell the story in pairs.

2 DISCUSSION

Learning Objective: assess one's ability to ask and answer questions about past activities

A

- Ss check (✓) the things they did individually yesterday. Then they add two more things.

B Group work

- Model the conversation with a S. Then Ss ask and answer questions about the things in part A in small groups.

3 SPEAKING

Learning Objective: assess one's ability to give and understand simple directions

A

- Explain the task. Ss create a neighborhood. They choose five places from the list and add them to My map.
- For plurals, tell Ss to be sure to draw two places on their maps.
- Ss complete the task individually.
- Go around the class and give help as needed.

B Pair work

- Read the instructions aloud. Ask two Ss to model the example conversation. Explain that Student A draws a café on the corner of Center Street and First Avenue on My partner's map. Point out that Ss cannot look at their partners' maps.
- Ss take turns asking and answering questions in pairs.
- Tell Ss to ask any additional questions to find the exact location of each place (e.g., Is it next to the grocery store?).
- Ss then compare maps. Ask: "Did you draw the place in the correct locations?"

4 ROLE PLAY

Learning Objective: assess one's ability to talk about neighborhoods

- Explain the task. Ss work in pairs. Student A is a visitor in Student B's neighborhood. Student A asks questions and Student B answers them.
- Model the example conversation with a S.

- Go over the topics in the box. Explain or elicit any new vocabulary.
- Ss practice the role play in pairs. Then they change roles and practice again.
- Go around the class and check Ss' use of how many, how much, and quantifiers.

WHAT'S NEXT?

Learning Objective: become more involved in one's learning

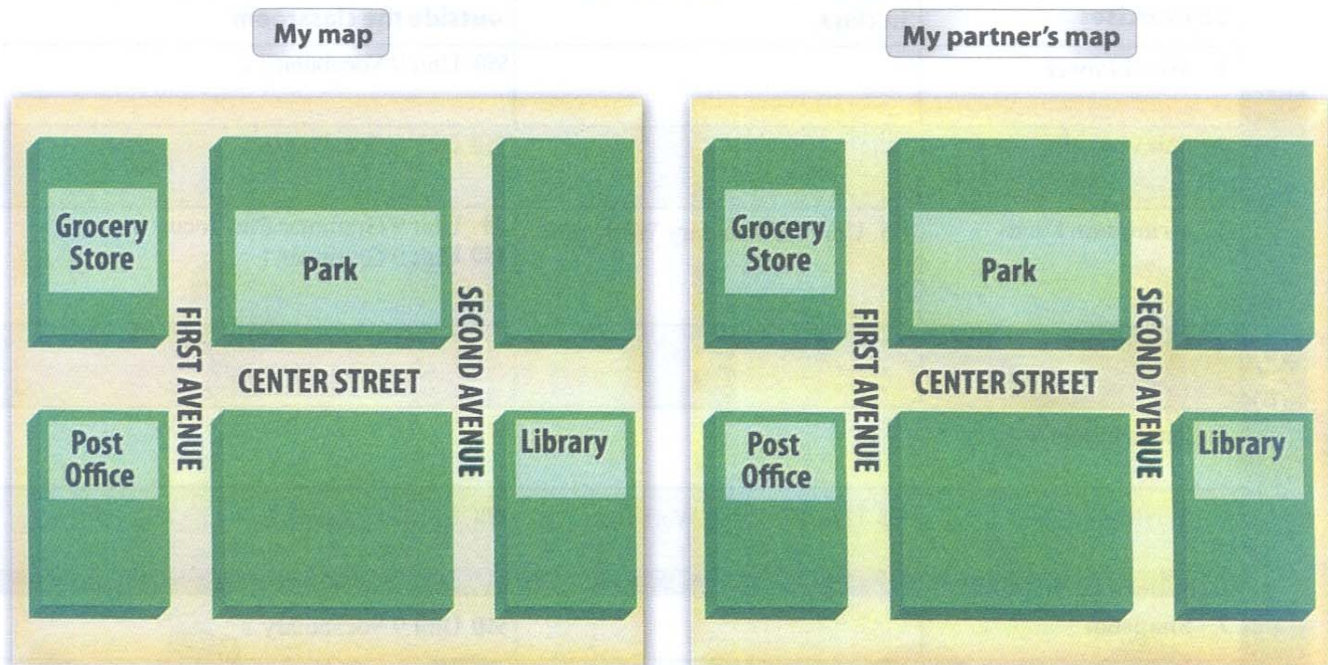

- Focus Ss' attention on the Self-assessment again. Ask: "How well can you do these things now?"

- Ask Ss to underline one thing they need to review. Ask: "What did you underline? How can you review it?"
- If needed, plan additional activities or reviews based on Ss' answers.

3 SPEAKING The neighborhood

A Create a neighborhood. Add five places to "My map."
Choose from this list.

a bank cafés a dance club a drugstore gas stations a gym a theater

B PAIR WORK Ask questions about your partner's map. (But don't look!)
Draw the places on "My partner's map." Then compare your maps.

A: Are there any cafés in the neighborhood?

B: Yes, there's one on the corner of Center Street and First Avenue.

4 ROLE PLAY What's it like?

Student A: Imagine you are a visitor in Student B's neighborhood.
Ask questions about it.

Student B: Imagine a visitor wants to find out about your neighborhood. Answer the visitor's questions.

A: How much crime is there?

B: There isn't much. It's a very safe neighborhood.

A: Is there much noise?

B: Well, yes, there's a lot. . .

Change roles and try the role play again.

topics to ask about crime noise parks places to shop pollution public transportation schools

WHAT'S NEXT?

Look at your Self-assessment again. Do you need to review anything?

WORD POWER

Learning Objective: learn vocabulary for describing people

A

- Books closed. Explain that Ss will learn ways to describe what people look like. Ask questions about different Ss: "Is he tall or short? Does she have straight or curly hair?"
- Option: Ask Ss to bring pictures of friends or family members to class. Alternatively, bring magazine pictures of people to class.
- Books open. Focus Ss' attention on the expressions and pictures. Ask them to circle any words they don't know.
- Ask different Ss to read the expressions. Give help with pronunciation as needed. Point out that handsome usually refers to men and pretty to women, but good-looking describes both men and women. Also point out that adverbs such as fairly and pretty can modify the strength of different descriptions (e.g., fairly short, pretty tall).
- Write these headings across the top of the board:
Hair Age Looks Height Other
- Ss work in groups. Ask Ss to brainstorm at least three more expressions to describe people. Then ask a S from each group to write their expressions under the correct headings on the board.

Possible answers

Hair: light brown hair, dark brown hair, gray hair, medium length hair, wavy hair, a ponytail
Age: ten, in his or her teens/twenties/thirties, old Looks: thin, heavy, cute, beautiful, gorgeous
Height: rather short, quite tall
Other: blue eyes, green eyes, dark eyes, brown eyes

In Unit 9, students describe people's appearances. In Cycle 1, they describe people's physical appearances. In Cycle 2, they identify people using modifiers with participles and prepositions to describe what they are wearing or doing.

TIP

Don't give your Ss too much new vocabulary. If they already know the presented vocabulary, add more. If not, add just a few extra words they want to know.

- Explain or elicit the rules for using the new words:
be + adjective
have + noun

Then ask Ss to write have or be next to the expressions on the board. Stress that we use be with age.

- Option: Ss write sentences about famous people using expressions from the boxes (e.g., Robert Pattinson is handsome). Then they read their sentences to their classmates, who agree or disagree.

B Pair work

- Ss choose at least four expressions to describe themselves and their partners. They complete the chart individually. Go around the class and give help as needed.
- Ask two Ss to read the example conversation. Elicit other expressions for agreeing or disagreeing (e.g., That's true. No way!). Write them on the board.
- Ss compare charts in pairs. Go around the class and give help as needed.
- Option: Ss work with different partners. This time, they sit back-to-back and describe each other from memory.

- For a new way to review, categorize, or expand on the vocabulary in this Word Power, try Mind Mapping – download it from the website.

- Ss cover the text. Ask Ss to describe the people in the picture.
- Write these focus questions on the board:
 1. Who are Randy and Emily talking about?
 2. How does Randy describe her?
 3. How old is she?
- Play the audio program and elicit the answers. (Answers: 1. Randy's new girlfriend 2. She's gorgeous and very tall. She has beautiful red hair. 3. Randy doesn't know.)
- Ss uncover the text. Play the audio program again. Ss listen and read silently.

B [CD 2, Track 31]

- Read the focus question aloud. Ask Ss to make predictions. Write their predictions on the board.
- Play the audio program. Ss listen for the answer to the focus question.
- Ss compare answers in small groups. Then go over answers with the class. Was anyone's prediction correct?

AudioScript

11 READING

DEAR KEN AND PIXIE

Your style questions answered!

Look at the pictures. What is each an example of? Match the descriptions with the pictures. a. mixing old and new b. mixing baggy and slim c. mixing colors and patterns

All of your questions this week are about mixing and matching styles, patterns, and colors.

Dear Ken and Pixie,
I'm reading a lot about how to mix prints in the latest fashion magazines. But when I wear different prints together, I look silly. What's the trick?
- Mixed-up

Dear Mixed-up,
It's not difficult to wear different prints together. Find the similarity in each item of clothing you want to wear. Mix two or three items with the same background color, like white or another neutral color. Mix a large print with a small one. Mix similar patterns, like stripes with plaid. But if you don't feel comfortable in it, don't wear it!

Dear Ken and Pixie,
In college, I wore vintage clothes, but now I'm 30 and need a modern look. How can I wear vintage styles without looking outdated?
- Oldie but Goodie

Dear Oldie but Goodie,
Vintage clothing is always in! But mix it with something new for a modern look. Wear a vintage shirt with pants. Pair an old belt with a new bag. Wear vintage shoes with new jeans. But sometimes you need to alter the clothes. For example, take a baggy vintage skirt and make it slim, or cut the shoulder pads out of a vintage jacket.

Dear Ken and Pixie,
I'm seeing both baggy pants and skinny pants on the designer runways. Also, short pants and long pants. What's in style?
- Confused Carrie

Dear Confused Carrie,
It's all in style! For pants, anything goes this year. The trick is to wear something on top that is the opposite of the style of the pants. So, if you're wearing baggy pants, try a slim shirt. If slim pants are your thing, wear a baggy sweater. Short pants? Try funky shoes. Wear long pants with your shirt tucked in and a belt.

A Read the webpage. Find the words in italics in the text. Then match each word with its meaning.

- | | |
|--------------------------|-------------------------------------|
| 1. neutral | a. not in style |
| 2. vintage | b. change |
| 3. outdated | c. slim |
| 4. alter | d. from the past but still in style |
| 5. baggy | e. without strong color |
| 6. skinny | f. loose fitting |

B PAIRWORK Answer these questions.

- Do you mix and match patterns and colors? What does your favorite outfit look like?
- Do you have any vintage clothing? What time period is it from?
- Do you wear clothes because they are fashionable or because they look good on you, or both?

GRAMMAR FOCUS

Learning Objectives: practice the present perfect with already and yet; ask and answer questions using the present perfect with regular and irregular past participles

[CD 2, Track 42]

Present perfect

- Focus Ss' attention on the Conversation on page 64. Ask: "What has Todd done in New Orleans?" Elicit Ss' answers and write them on the board:
He has been to a jazz club.
He has done a riverboat tour.
He has ridden in a streetcar.
- Ask: "When did he do these things?" (Answer: sometime in the past few days)
- Explain that these sentences are in the present perfect. We use this tense with past actions when the exact time is not important.
- Draw this time line on the board:

Explain that Todd has been to a jazz club sometime in the past few days. We don't know the exact time, and it's not important.

- Say: "Imagine that Todd has been to three jazz clubs this week." Draw two more X's on the time line and say: "Todd has been to a jazz club three times this week."
- Focus Ss' attention on the Grammar Focus box. Elicit or explain the rules for forming present perfect statements and yes/no questions:
Subject + has/have + past participle.
Has/Have + subject + past participle?
- Point out the placement of yet and already and explain the meaning. Yet goes at the end of present perfect questions and at the end of negative statements. Already goes before the past participle and means "earlier than expected."
- Play the audio program and answer any questions.

A

- Explain the task and read the examples. Then ask different Ss and elicit their answers. If needed, point out the expression once, twice, and a couple of times.

See the Supplementary Resources chart at the beginning of this unit for additional teaching materials and student activities related to this Cycle and for assessment tools.

12 READING

TAKING THE RISK

Look at the pictures and skim the interviews. Then write the name of the sport below each picture.

Sports World magazine recently spoke with Josh Parker, Lisa Kim, and Alex Costas about risky sports.

SW: Wingsuit flying is a dangerous sport, Josh. What do you enjoy about it? And have you ever had an accident?

Josh: No, I've never been hurt. But, yes, it is dangerous, even for experienced flyers. I've been doing it for five years, but I still get a little nervous before I jump out of the plane. That's the most dangerous thing. Once, I jumped too fast, and I started to spin. That was scary! But it's amazing to be able to fly like a bird.

SW: Lisa, you've been kiteboarding for years now. What are some of the dangers?

Lisa: Oh, there are many dangers. When you're in the ocean, the conditions can be unpredictable. The wind can lift you up too fast and then drop you against something hard, like sand, or even water. You can also hit another surfer. But I like the challenge, and I like overcoming danger. That's why I do it.

SW: Alex, have you ever experienced any dangers while ice climbing?

Alex: Yes, absolutely. When you're high up on a mountain, the conditions are hard on the body. The air is thin, and it's very cold. I've seen some really dangerous storms. But the great thing about it is how you feel when you're done. Your body feels good, and you have a beautiful view of the snowy mountaintops.

A Read the interviews. Then complete the chart.

Sport	What they enjoy	The danger(s)

2. Lisa
3. Alex

- Set a time limit of about three minutes. Then Ss change roles. Go around the class and give help as needed.

TIP If you don't have enough class time for the speaking activities, assign each S a speaking partner. Then have Ss complete the activities with their partners for homework.

3 SPEAKING

Learning Objective: assess one's ability to answer questions about whether or not things have been done

A

- Explain the task. Ss imagine they are preparing for three situations. Read the situations and the example.
- Ss list four things they need to do for each situation.

4 LISTENING

Learning Objectives: assess one's ability to understand descriptions of experiences; assess one's ability to ask and answer questions about experiences

A [CD 2, Track 49]

- Set the scene. Jamie is on a cruise and is talking to someone about things she has done.
- Go over the chart and explain any new vocabulary. Then play the audio program. Ss complete the task.

AudioScript

Man Are you enjoying the cruise, Jamie?

Jamie Oh, yes, very much. Actually, I won a contest and this cruise was the prize.

Man That's fantastic! Hey, I've always wondered something about contests. The cruise left from Miami, so how did they get you there? Did they fly you there?

Jamie No, I live in Miami, so I didn't have to travel at all. I've never flown on a plane. But I did get to stay in an expensive hotel in Miami for a day.

Man That's nice.

Jamie Yeah, it was. Oh, and I saw Jennifer Lopez there. She was in the same hotel.

Man Jennifer Lopez? Really? Did you meet her?

Jamie No. In fact, I've never met a famous person. But I think she smiled at me.

B Pair work

- Explain the task. Ss exchange lists. Student A asks Student B what he or she has done in each situation. Student B gives responses using already or yet.
- Ss complete the task in pairs.

Man Cool.

Jamie Yeah. And I got to enjoy the hotel activities. I even tried windsurfing.

Man Sounds fun.

Jamie Yeah, it was. But I did something stupid. I took my wallet with me and almost lost it. I'm always very careful with my wallet, and I have never lost it. It almost fell into the ocean. Luckily, I caught it.

Man That was lucky! Well, it sounds like you've really enjoyed this trip.

Jamie For the most part. I mean, I've been a little seasick, but I'll remember this trip forever. I've even kept a diary this whole time so I can tell my friends all about it.

Man I'm sure they'll love that. Well, enjoy the rest of the cruise.

Jamie Thanks. I will.

Answers

Cycle 1, Exercises 1–5

In Unit 11, students talk about hometowns, cities, and countries. In Cycle 1, they talk about their hometowns using adverbs, adjectives, and conjunctions. In Cycle 2, they discuss popular vacation places using can and should.

1 WORD POWER

Learning Objective: learn vocabulary for describing places

A Pair work

- Elicit adjectives that describe cities (e.g., beautiful, ugly) and write them on the board.
- Ss check (✓) the adjectives they listed. Then they read the other words silently.
- Elicit words Ss don't understand or know how to pronounce. Explain or pronounce these words.
- Explain the task and elicit the first example. Then Ss complete the matching task in pairs.
- Go over answers with the class.

Answers

1. h 2. d 3. f 4. a 5. e 6. g 7. c 8. b

- Pairs now add two more sets of opposites. Ss may use their dictionaries if they wish. Go over possible answers.

Possible answers

modern/traditional large/small hot/cold

- Ask Ss to write the new adjectives in their notebooks and check (✓) the ones that describe their city or town.
- For more practice matching opposite adjectives, play Concentration – download it from the website.

B Pair work

- Ss choose two cities or towns from any country and describe them in pairs. Encourage them to use the adjectives in part A.

2 CONVERSATION

Learning Objectives: practice a conversation about a city; see adverbs before adjectives, and conjunctions, in context

A [CD 3, Track 1]

- Books closed. Set the scene. Eric is asking Carmen about her hometown of San Juan, Puerto Rico.
- Ask: "What do you know about Puerto Rico? Where is it? What's it like?"
- Write this on the board:
 1. Weather: OK or great?
 2. Beaches: polluted or fantastic?
 3. Prices: reasonable or expensive?
- Play the audio program. Ss listen to the audio program to find the answers. Then they compare answers with a partner.
- Go over the answers with the class. (Answers: 1. great 2. fantastic 3. reasonable)
- Books open. Play the audio program again.
- Ss listen and read silently. Then they practice the conversation in pairs. Go around the class and give help as needed.

- ! For a new way to teach this Conversation, try the Disappearing Dialog – download it from the website.

B [CD 3, Track 2]

- Explain the task and read the focus question.
- Play the audio program. Ss listen for the answer. Then they compare answers in small groups. Go over the answer with the class.

AudioScript

Eric So what kinds of things are there to do in San Juan?
 Carmen Well, there are a lot of nightclubs. Puerto Ricans love to dance!
 Eric I'm not much of a dancer. Anything else?
 Carmen Well, a lot of people enjoy going out to eat. There are some excellent restaurants in Old San Juan. They're popular with both locals and tourists.
 Eric Now that sounds good. I love to eat!

Possible answers

There are a lot of nightclubs and some excellent restaurants.

- Option: Ask Ss: "Would you like to visit San Juan? Why or why not?"

GRAMMAR FOCUS

Learning Objectives: practice using adverbs before adjectives; write sentences using conjunctions

[CD 3, Track 3]

Adverbs before adjectives

- Focus Ss' attention on the Conversation on page 72. Ask: "What has Eric heard about San Juan?" (Answer: It's really nice.) Then ask: "How big is San Juan?" (Answer: It's fairly big.)
- Explain that sometimes we use adverbs like very, really, and fairly to modify adjectives.
- Ask Ss to find more examples of adverbs that modify adjectives in the Conversation and underline them (e.g., very expensive, pretty reasonable, too big). Elicit other adverbs.
- Focus Ss' attention on the adverbs box. Point out that they are organized from the most to the least.
- Focus Ss' attention on the Grammar Focus box. Point out the position of the adverb and elicit the rule:
X is adverb + adjective.
X is a/an adverb + adjective + noun.
- Explain that too means "more than you want," so we usually use it with negative adjectives (e.g., too bad, NOT too nice). Also, we cannot use too with an adverb + adjective + noun (e.g., too expensive, NOT a too expensive city).
- Play the audio program.
- Option: Focus Ss' attention on part B of the Word Power on page 72. Ss describe a city again, using adverbs + adjectives.

A

- Explain the task. Ss match the questions with the answers.
- Go over answers with the class. Then Ss practice the conversations in pairs.

Answers

1. e 2. d 3. a 4. b 5. c

- For practice asking questions about cities, play Twenty Questions – download it from the website.

[CD 3, Track 4]

Conjunctions

- Focus Ss' attention on the first sentence in the second Grammar Focus box. Ask: "Are big and nice positive or negative?" (Answer: Both are positive.)

- Point out that we use and to connect two positive or two negative ideas. Elicit a sentence with two negative ideas (e.g., The city is ugly, and the weather is terrible.). Ask: "What punctuation comes before and?" (Answer: a comma)
- Focus Ss' attention on the other three sentences. Ask: "Are they positive + positive, negative + negative, or positive + negative?" (Answer: positive + negative) Explain that we use but, though, and however to connect a positive idea with a negative idea.
- Tell Ss to look at the position of but, though, and however. Ask: "How are though and however different from but?" (Answer: But is in the middle of the sentence. Though and however are at the end.)
- Ask: "What punctuation comes before each conjunction?" (Answer: a comma) Point out that and and but connect two complete sentences.
- Play the audio program.

B

- Explain the task and model the first answer. Ss complete the task individually. Go around the class and check Ss' use of punctuation.
- Ask different Ss to write their answers on the board. Go over answers with the class.

Answers

- Shopping is great, but you have to bargain in the markets.
- It's an amazing city, and I love to go there.

C Group work

- Write these topics on the board:
People Food Shopping
Weather Crime Things to do
- Explain the task and ask two Ss to read the example conversation. Point out that Ss can discuss the topics on the board.
- Ss complete the task. Ask Ss to name the negative statement in each description.
- Go around the class and note any errors. Then write them on the board and ask Ss to correct them.

TIP To check if Ss have understood the grammar, write their errors on the board. Then ask Ss to correct them.

13 READING Greetings from ...

Scan the email messages. What city has a puppet show? What city has two personalities? What city is famous for leather?

Fez is so interesting! I've been to the medina (the old city) every day. It has walls all the way around it, and more than 9,000 streets! It's always crowded and noisy. My favorite places to visit are the small shops where people make local crafts. Fez is famous for its leather products. I visited a place where they dye the leather in dozens of beautiful colors.

I came at the perfect time, because the World Sacred Music festival is happening right now!

Kathy

I've discovered that Cartagena has two different personalities. One is a lively city with fancy restaurants and crowded old plazas. And the other is a quiet and relaxing place with sandy beaches. If you come here, you should stay in the historic district – a walled area with great shopping, nightclubs, and restaurants. It has some wonderful old Spanish buildings.

Last night, I learned some salsa steps at a great dance club.

Today, I went on a canoe tour of La Ciénaga mangrove forest.

Mike

Hanoi is the capital of Vietnam and its second-largest city. It's a fun city, but six days is not enough time for a visit. I'm staying near the Old Quarter of the city. It's a great place to meet people. Last night I went to a water puppet show. Tomorrow I'm going to Ha Long Bay.

I took a cooking class at the Vietnam Culinary School. I bought some fruits and vegetables at a local market and then prepared some local dishes. My food was really delicious! I'll cook you something when I get home.

Belinda

It really works!

Cycle 1, Exercises 1–6

1 SNAPSHOT

Learning Objectives: learn vocabulary for common health problems; talk about health problems

- Books closed. Elicit common health problems from the class and write them on the board.
- Books open. Ss compare their ideas with the Snapshot. Explain any new vocabulary, using gestures if needed.
- Explain the tasks. Ss complete the tasks in small groups. Go around the class and give help as needed.

In Unit 12, students talk about health. In Cycle 1, they talk about health problems and give advice using adjective + infinitive and noun + infinitive. In Cycle 2, they ask for advice and give suggestions about health care products using the modal verbs can, could, and may.

- Ask the class: "How many of you have had a headache recently? Raise your hands." Ask about each health problem. Count the number of Ss who have had each one.

For a new way to practice the vocabulary in this Snapshot, try Vocabulary Steps – download it from the website. Ss rank the health problems according to most/least serious or most/least common.

2 CONVERSATION

Learning Objectives: practice a conversation about health problems; see adjective + infinitive and noun + infinitive in context

A [CD 3, Track 13]

- Ss cover the text and look at the picture. Elicit or explain vocabulary (e.g., tissues). Ask: "What health problem do you think Craig has? How do you know?"

B [CD 3, Track 14]

- Read the task and focus question. Ask Ss to make predictions. Write their ideas on the board.
- Play the audio program. Ss listen for the answers individually. Then elicit answers from the class.

GRAMMAR FOCUS

Learning Objective: practice conversations using modal verbs for requests and suggestions

- Focus Ss' attention on the example questions in the first column of the Grammar Focus box. Point out that the first question (Can/May I help you?) is an offer of help. The other three questions are requests for help. Explain that people can use can, could, and may to make a request, but may is the most formal.
- Elicit the rule for questions with modals:
Modal + subject + verb?
- Focus Ss' attention on the three ways to make suggestions in the second column. Ask Ss to find examples in the Conversation in Exercise 8 and underline them twice.

- Play the audio program.
- Explain the task and model the first conversation with a S.

- Pharmacist Can I help you?

Man Yes, I'd like something for my feet. I went on a long hike yesterday and my feet are really sore.

Pharmacist I see. Why don't you try some of this ointment? You can put it on at night. It's very good for sore feet. I use it myself, actually.
- Woman Excuse me. I'm looking for something for a stomachache.

Pharmacist I see. How long have you had this problem?

Woman For a few days, and it's getting worse.

Pharmacist You could try this medicine. It may help. But I think you should see a doctor.
- Pharmacist Can I help you?

Man Yes. I just came back from London on a long flight, and I'm having trouble sleeping.

Pharmacist We have several things for that, including sleeping pills. But try some of this herbal tea. It's very good for jet lag. Drink some before you go to bed at night.

Man Thanks. I'll try it. I don't like taking sleeping pills.

- Pharmacist Good morning. What can I do for you?

Woman Um, I need something for a burn. I burned my hand a little when I was cooking last night. See?

Pharmacist Oh, yes. I'll give you some cream for it. After you put on the cream, place a bandage over it for a few days. You should be fine.

Rain Forest Remedies?

Look at the title, pictures, and captions. What do you think the article is about?

- 1 Rodrigo Bonilla turns off the motor of the boat. We get off the boat and follow him along the path into the rain forest. Above us, a monkey with a baby hangs from a tree.
- 2 On this hot January day, Rodrigo is not looking for wild animals, but for medicinal plants – plants that can cure or treat illnesses. Medicinal plants grow in rain forests around the world.

Carol writes a column on health. Recently she took a trip to Tortuguero National Park in Costa Rica.

A broom tree

- 3 Rodrigo is Costa Rican. He learned about jungle medicine from his grandmother. He shows us many different plants, such as the broom tree. He tells us that parts of the broom tree can help stop bleeding.
- 4 People have always used natural products as medicine. In fact, about 50 percent of Western medicines, such as aspirin, come from natural sources. And some animals eat certain kinds of plants when they are sick.
- 5 This is why medical researchers are so interested in plants. Many companies are now working with local governments and searching the rain forests for medicinal plants.
- 6 So far, the search has not produced any new medicines. But it's a good idea to keep looking. That's why we are now here in the Costa Rican rain forest.

Learning Objectives: reflect on one's learning; identify areas that need improvement

- Ask: "What did you learn in Units 11 and 12?" Elicit Ss' answers.
- Ss complete the Self-assessment. Encourage them to be honest, and point out they will not get a bad grade if they check (✓) a little.

- Ss move on to the Progress check exercises. You can have Ss complete them in class or for homework, using one of these techniques:
 1. Ask Ss to complete all the exercises.
 2. Ask Ss: "What do you need to practice?" Then assign exercises based on their answers.
 3. Ask Ss to choose and complete exercises based on their Self-assessment.

1 LISTENING

Learning Objectives: assess one's ability to listen to and understand descriptions of cities; assess one's ability to describe places using adjectives, adverbs, and conjunctions

A [CD 3, Track 22]

- Set the scene and explain the task. Jenny is talking about Honolulu, her hometown. Ss listen and write the size of the city, weather, prices of things, and most famous place in their chart.

AudioScript

Man So, you're from Hawaii, Jenny.

Jenny That's right.

Man Where in Hawaii?

Jenny I'm from Honolulu – on the island of Oahu.

Man Wow! Honolulu! That's a fairly big city, isn't it?

Jenny No, not really. It's not too big.

Man The weather is great, though. Right?

Jenny Oh, yes. It is. It's very comfortable the whole year.

Warm, but not too hot.

Man I've heard that Honolulu is an expensive city. Is that true?

Jenny Well, yes, it is pretty expensive. Rents are high and food is expensive, too. That's because everything comes in from the mainland.

Man What's that beach in Honolulu?

Jenny Well, the most famous place in Honolulu is probably Waikiki Beach. That's where all the tourists go.

Man Yeah, that's it. Waikiki Beach.

- Go over answers with the class.

Answers

4 SPEAKING Advice column

A GROUP WORK Look at these problems from an advice column. Suggest advice for each problem. Then choose the best advice.

I'm visiting the United States. I'm staying with a family while I'm here. What small gifts can I get for them?

My co-worker always talks loudly to her friends – during work hours. I can't concentrate! What can I do?

- Explain the tasks. Then Ss complete the tasks in pairs. Go around the class and give help as needed.

Learning Objectives: practice a conversation between two people deciding where to go for dinner; see so, too, neither, and either in context

A [CD 3, Track 23]

- Books closed. Set the scene. Jeff and Bob are discussing where to go for dinner. Write these focus questions on the board:

Jeff Let's meet at the restaurant, OK?

Bob Yeah, that's fine with me.

Answers

They decide to have dinner around 6:00. They decide to meet at the restaurant.

GRAMMAR FOCUS

Learning Objective: practice agreeing and disagreeing using so, too, neither, and either

[CD 3, Track 25]

- Focus Ss' attention on the Grammar Focus box. Ask: "Which column has positive statements? Which column has negative statements?" (Answers: The first column has positive statements, and the second column has negative statements.)

So and too

- Focus Ss' attention on the first column. Point out that we can use so or too to agree with a positive statement.
- Write these responses on the board:
So do I. So am I. So can I.
Ask: "When do we use each response?" Elicit or explain the rule. (Answer: The verb in each response matches that of the sentence before it.)
- Focus Ss' attention on the difference between so and too. Point out that so is at the beginning of the response and too is at the end:
So + do/am/can + I.
I + do/am/can + too.
- Ask Ss to find responses in the first column that disagree with positive statements. (Answers: Really? I don't like it very much./Oh, I'm not./Really? I can't.)
- Play the audio program for the first column.
- Option: Drill So do I, So am I, or So can I responses. Read a list of ten positive statements to the class (e.g., I live near here. I am smart. I can speak English.). Ss respond chorally and then individually.

Neither and either

- Focus Ss' attention on the second column of the Grammar Focus box. Elicit the rules for agreeing with a negative statement:
Neither + do/am/can + I.
I don't/I'm not/I can't either.
- Point out different ways to disagree with negative statements (e.g., Oh, I like it a lot. /Really? I am.).
- Play the audio program for the second column.
- Option: Drill Neither do I, Neither am I, or Neither can I responses. Read a list of ten negative statements to the class (e.g., I don't like fish ice cream. I'm not hungry. I can't cook French food.). Ss respond chorally and then individually.

A

- Ask different Ss to read the adjectives describing food. Help with pronunciation as needed.
- Explain the task. Ss write responses to show agreement with the statements. Point out that each statement has two correct responses.
- Read the first two statements and elicit Ss' responses. Write correct responses on the board.
- Ss complete the task individually. Then they compare answers in pairs. Go over answers with the class.

Possible answers

- Neither am I./I'm not either.
- So can I./I can, too.

B Pair work

- Explain the task. Ss work in pairs. They take turns reading the statements in part A and responding with their own opinions.

12 READING

To Tip or Not to Tip?

Scan the article. How much should you tip someone in the United States who: carries your suitcase at a hotel? parks your car? serves you in a fast-food restaurant?

The word tip comes from an old English slang word that means "to give." It's both a noun and a verb. People in the U.S. usually tip people in places like restaurants, airports, hotels, and hair salons. People who work in these places often get paid low wages. A tip shows that the customer is pleased with the service.

Sometimes it's hard to know how much to tip. The size of the tip usually depends on the service. People such as parking valets or bellhops usually get smaller tips. The tip for people such as taxi drivers and servers is usually larger. Here are a few guidelines for tipping in the United States:

Taxi drivers: 15 percent of the bill; more if they help you with bags
Servers: 15 to 20 percent of the bill (There is no tipping in fast-food restaurants.)
Barbers or hairstylists: 15 percent of the bill
Airport porters or hotel bellhops: $1 or $2 for carrying each suitcase
Hotel door attendants: $1 or $2 for getting a taxi
Parking valets: $2 for parking a car
Hotel maids: $2 to $5 per night

When you're not sure about how much to tip, do what feels right. You don't have to tip for bad service. And you can give a bigger tip for very good service. Remember, though, your behavior is more important than your money. Always treat service providers with respect.

A Read the article. Find the words in italics in the article. Then check (✓) the meaning of each word.

- | | | | |
|---------------------|--------------------------------------------------|--------------------|-------------------------------------------|
| 1. wages | <input type="checkbox"/> regular pay for a job | 4. behavior | <input type="checkbox"/> a way of acting |
| | <input type="checkbox"/> tips received for a job | | <input type="checkbox"/> a way of feeling |
| 2. pleased | <input type="checkbox"/> happy or satisfied | 5. treat | <input type="checkbox"/> ignore |
| | <input type="checkbox"/> annoyed or bothered | | <input type="checkbox"/> act toward |
| 3. depend on | <input type="checkbox"/> be the same as | 6. respect | <input type="checkbox"/> courtesy |
| | <input type="checkbox"/> change according to | | <input type="checkbox"/> rudeness |

B Check (✓) the statements that describe appropriate tipping behavior. For the other items, what is acceptable?

- ☐ 1. Your haircut costs $40. You love it. You tip the stylist $3.
- ☐ 2. A porter at the airport helps you with three suitcases. You tip him $6.
- ☐ 3. Your fast-food meal costs $8. You don't leave a tip.
- ☐ 4. You stay in a hotel for a week. You leave a $10 tip for the hotel maid.
- ☐ 5. Your taxi ride costs $14. The driver carries your bag. You tip him $3.

The biggest and the best!

Cycle 1, Exercises 1-7

1 WORD POWER

Learning Objective: learn vocabulary for discussing geography

A

- Option: Bring in a world map, globe, or atlas to class.
- Explain that this unit is about world geography.
- Explain the task. Ss label the picture with words from the list. Go around the class and give help as needed.
- Ss compare their pictures in pairs. Elicit or explain any new vocabulary or pronunciation.

(from left to right)

k, c, e, f, b, a, j, g, l, i, h, d

B Pair work

- Ss brainstorm to see how many words they can think of that relate to geography. Ask different Ss to write their words on the board under these headings:
Water-related words Land-related words
Climate-related words Other
- Go over the words and ask Ss to copy them into their vocabulary notebooks.

Possible answers

Water-related: sea, stream, coast, pond, coral reef

Land-related: continent, plateau, canyon, rain forest

Climate-related: weather, storm, rain, snow, cloud, fog

Other: country, city, town, village

TIP Create a Vocabulary Box. As a new word is taught, a S writes the word on a slip of paper and puts it in the box. Review words as a warm-up activity in future classes, or use them in games.

In Unit 14, students talk about world geography. In Cycle 1, they talk about geography using the comparative and superlative forms of adjectives. In Cycle 2, they discuss distances, measurements, and places using questions with how.

- Option: Review vocabulary with Odd Man Out. List geography words, and ask Ss to find which word is different from the others (e.g., hill, mountain, volcano, ocean; ocean is the only water-related word).

C Group work

- Explain the task. Read the example conversation. Point out that the words Mount and Lake come before the name (e.g., Mount Fuji, Lake Victoria). The other terms come after the name (e.g. Waikiki Beach, the Nile River, the Sahara Desert).
- Ss work in small groups to think of other examples. Ask groups to share their examples with the class.
- Point out that seas, rivers, and mountain ranges (but not most lakes) use the definite article (e.g., the Black Sea, the Rhine River, the Himalayas), but bring this up only if Ss ask you.

Possible answers

beach – Waikiki, Copacabana, Bondi desert – Sahara, Atacama, Gobi forest – Black Forest, Sherwood Forest hill – Capitol Hill, Bunker Hill, Beverly Hills island – Puerto Rico, Java, Hokkaido lake – Titicaca, Superior, Baikal mountain – Aconcagua, Everest, Kilimanjaro ocean – Atlantic, Indian, Arctic river – Amazon, Rhine, Mekong valley – Silicon, Loire, Death

volcano – Cotopaxi, Etna, Pinatubo

waterfall – Angel Falls, Iguazú Falls, Niagara Falls

- ! For a new way to practice this vocabulary, try
- Picture Dictation – download it from the website. Describe a scene similar to the one in the picture.

2 CONVERSATION

Learning Objectives: practice a conversation about geography; see comparisons with adjectives in context

A [CD 3, Track 32]

- Set the scene. Mike is asking Wendy some questions from a geography quiz. Point out that Wendy gets some answers wrong.
- Play the audio program. Ss listen to Wendy's answers and underline them in the conversation.
- Ask: "How many questions do you think Wendy got right? One? Two? Three? All four?"

B [CD 3, Track 33]

- Play the audio program. Ss listen for the correct answers.
- Ask: "How many answers did Wendy get right?" (Answer: two)

AudioScript

Mike So let's see how you did on this quiz. The first question: Which is larger, China or Canada? You said ...
Wendy Canada.
Mike And you're right! Both are large, but Canada is larger. Next: What's the longest river in the Americas? You said the Mississippi. Sorry, no. It's the Amazon.
Wendy Oh, of course.
Mike This next question I didn't know. Monaco is more crowded than Singapore.
Wendy So I got it right? I just guessed.
Mike And finally, you said that Bogotá is the highest capital city in South America.
Wendy Yeah, I remember hearing that somewhere.
Mike Sorry, Wendy, but you're wrong. La Paz in Bolivia is the highest.
Wendy Really? Gee, I guess I didn't do so well – two right but two wrong!

Answers

Canada, Amazon, Monaco, La Paz

3 GRAMMAR FOCUS

Learning Objective: ask and answer questions using comparisons with adjectives

[CD 3, Track 34]

Comparative and superlative forms of adjectives

- Focus Ss' attention on the Conversation in Exercise 2. Ask Ss to identify the first two questions that compare things. (Answers: Which country is larger, China or Canada? What's the longest river in the Americas?)
- Ask Ss to make sentences comparing two things in their country (e.g., mountains, rivers, cities). If necessary, review comparative adjectives using Exercise 10 in Unit 3.
- Draw a chart on the board, like this:

- Explain the reasons for the numbers 1, 2, 3+ (e.g., 3+ is used when we are comparing three or more things).
- Elicit or explain the rules for forming the superlative:
 - use the definite article (e.g., the largest country)
 - when the adjective has only one syllable or two syllables ending in y, use: the + adjective + -est + noun (e.g., the longest river, the prettiest lake)
 - when the adjective has two or more syllables, use: the most + adjective + noun (e.g., the most crowded country)

- Refer Ss to the appendix on page T-164 for spelling rules. Go over with the class.
- Give Ss a list of adjectives. Ss write comparative and superlative forms in the circles on the board.
- Point to the examples in the Grammar Focus box. Play the audio program.

A

- Go over the task. Ss complete the sentences individually. Then they ask and answer the questions in pairs.
- Elicit the Ss' answers.

Answers

- Which country is smaller, Monaco or Vatican City?
- Which waterfall is higher, Niagara Falls or Victoria Falls?
- Which city is more crowded, Hong Kong or Cairo?
- Which lake is larger, the Caspian Sea or Lake Superior?

- Which city is the most expensive: London, Tokyo, or Moscow?
- What is the deepest ocean in the world, the Pacific, the Atlantic, or the Arctic?

(Note: Answers to questions are underlined.)

B Class activity

- Explain the task. Ss write four questions and take turns asking them around the class.

2 CONVERSATION Which is larger?

A Listen and practice.

- Mike: Here's an interesting geography quiz.
 Wendy: Oh, I love geography. Ask me the questions.
 Mike: Sure, first question. Which country is larger, China or Canada?
 Wendy: I know. Canada is larger than China.
 Mike: OK, next. What's the longest river in the Americas?
 Wendy: Hmm, I think it's the Mississippi.
 Mike: Here's a hard one. Which country is more crowded, Monaco or Singapore?
 Wendy: I'm not sure. I think Monaco is more crowded.
 Mike: OK, one more. Which South American capital city is the highest: La Paz, Quito, or Bogotá?
 Wendy: Oh, that's easy. Bogotá is the highest.

B Listen to the rest of the conversation. How many questions did Wendy get right?

JEJU ISLAND
One of the most interesting places to go in South Korea is Jeju Island. Many people go there for its warm climate and beautiful beaches. I think one of the best places to visit there is Halla Mountain, or Halla-san. It's an old volcano and you can climb it in a day, but you should go early.

10 GRAMMAR FOCUS

Learning Objective: ask and answer questions with how

 [CD 3, Track 39]

How + adjective

- Option: Find out which systems Ss are familiar with for distances (e.g., meters and kilometers or feet and miles) and for temperature (Celsius or Fahrenheit). Use the most suitable system during the class.
- Write this on the board:
How far is NZ from Australia? It's 3,740 meters high.
How big is Singapore? It's 1,900 meters deep.
How high is Mount Cook? It's about 2,000 kilometers.
How deep is the Grand Canyon? It's 648 square kilometers.
- Ask Ss to match the questions with the correct answers. Ss check their answers in the Grammar Focus box.
- Point out the use of how + adjective (e.g., how far, how big) in questions. Elicit more examples. Ask Ss to write them on the board in visual form:

TIP Visual and spatial Ss find structures and vocabulary easier to remember if they store the language in a pictorial form.

11 WRITING

Learning Objective: write an article to promote a place in your country

A

- Option: Ss check the Internet or other sources for information about their country. Tell Ss to look at real examples of country websites.
- Explain the task. Ss write about their country and places to visit.

- Ss choose a place in their country to write about. Brainstorm with the class details to include in the articles (e.g., location, landscape, weather, history, how to get there, and when to go).

- Focus Ss' attention on the answers in the Grammar Focus box. Ask: "What is different about high, deep, and long?" (Answer: They are repeated in the answer.)
- Use the audio program to present the questions and answers.
- Option: Give your Ss practice with large numbers by having them repeat the answers line by line.

A

- Explain the task. Ss complete the task individually. Check Ss' answers before they work in pairs to practice the conversations.

Answers

1. How high is Niagara Falls?
2. How big is California?
3. How long is the Nile?
4. How far is Osaka from Tokyo?
5. How hot is Mexico City in the spring?

B Group work

- Option: Ss can find facts in advance of this activity from the Internet, an atlas, or a guidebook.
- Explain the task. Elicit an example question. Ss write five questions with how.
- Ss work individually to write the questions. Go around the class and give help as needed.
- Ss ask and answer questions in groups.
- Option: Organize the class into teams and prepare a class game show using the Ss' questions.

B Pair work

- Explain the task. Ss work in pairs. They exchange articles and read them silently. Then the reader asks questions to get more information (e.g., What else is it famous for?).
- Encourage Ss to give each other helpful peer feedback. Then Ss revise their articles.

12 READING

Learning Objectives: read and discuss an article about the environment; develop skills in recognizing sources and understanding details

Do you usually walk, ride a bicycle, take public transportation, or use a car?
- Ss discuss the questions in pairs.
- Books open. Explain that this article is about the environment. Ss look at the pictures and decide which show environmental problems and which show solutions. Help Ss with vocabulary.

Answers

problems: 1, 4, 5, 8 solutions: 2, 3, 6, 7

A

- Explain the task. Ss read the article. Then they guess where the article is from. (Answer: a magazine) Ask: "How do you know? What clues tell you the answer?" (Answer: photos, design, title)
- Elicit or explain any new vocabulary.

Vocabulary

landfills: places where large amounts of garbage are buried over and over again: repeatedly recycled: collected and treated to be used again

"low-flow" showerhead: a device that controls or restricts the movement of water leaky: allowing water to escape, even when turned off

B

- Explain the task. Read aloud the first statement in part B. Ask: "Where should we look for advice about this?" (Answer: the section about water) Ask a S to describe how to find the answer. Ask another S to write the advice on the board.
- Ss continue the task individually. Go over answers with the class.

Possible answers

1. Stephanie should buy a low-flow showerhead and take shorter showers.
2. Ralph should turn down the heat during the day.
3. Matt should think before he buys it.

- Groups share their suggestions with the class. Groups choose a S to write their suggestions on the board.

Possible answers

Buy products that have the recycling symbol on them.
Plant trees, instead of cutting them down.
Learn how people are helping the environment.
Support existing environmental groups.
Don't leave the water on when brushing your teeth.

End of Cycle 2

See the Supplementary Resources chart at the beginning of this unit for additional teaching materials and student activities related to this Cycle and for assessment tools.

12 READING

Things You Can Do to Help the Environment

Look at the pictures. Which show environmental problems? Which show solutions?

CARS

Cars are getting bigger. SUVs—large, truck-like vehicles—are now the most popular cars in the United States. Bigger vehicles burn more gas and increase air pollution. So try to walk, bicycle, or use public transportation. If you drive a car, keep it tuned up. This saves gas and reduces pollution.

ENERGY

The biggest use of home energy is for heating and cooling. So turn up your air conditioner and turn down the heat, especially at night. Replace regular lightbulbs with bulbs that use less energy. And remember to turn lights off.

PRODUCTS

Each American throws away about 1.8 kilograms (4 pounds) of garbage every day. Most of it goes into landfills. Reduce waste before you buy by asking yourself: Do I need this? Is it something I can only use once? Buy products that you can use over and over again. And try to buy products made from recycled materials.

WATER

Showers use a lot of water. In one week, a typical American family uses as much water as a person drinks in three years! Buy a special "low-flow" showerhead or take shorter showers. This can cut water use in half. Also, fix any leaky faucets.

A Read the article. Where do you think it is from? Check (✓) the correct answer.

- ☐ a textbook ☐ an encyclopedia ☐ a magazine ☐ an advertisement

B Read these statements. Then write the advice from the article that each person should follow.

- Stephanie always takes long showers in the morning.
- In the winter, Ralph keeps the heat turned up all day.
- Matt buys a newspaper every day, but never reads it.
- Stuart drives to work, but his office is near his home.
- Sheila leaves the lights on at home all the time.

- Books open. Play the audio program again. Ss listen and read along silently.
- For a new way to practice this Conversation, try Say It with Feeling! – download it from the website.

B [CD 3, Track 42]

- Read the focus questions aloud. Ask Ss to guess the answers. Write some of their ideas on the board.
- Play the audio program. Ss work individually. Then go over answers with the class.

AudioScript

Lynn After we're done bowling, do you want to go to the Chinese Palace for dinner?

Miguel Sure. I love their food. We can go around 8:00.

That's not too late. You know, maybe Jason can join us.

Lynn Yeah. Hey, Jason, what are you doing tomorrow night? Do you want to join Miguel and me for dinner? We're going to the Chinese Palace at 8:00.

3 GRAMMAR FOCUS

Learning Objective: practice using future with the present continuous and be going to

- Call on Ss to fill in the blanks. (Answers: are/doing, Are/doing) Ask: "Do you recognize this tense?"
- Explain that earlier we used this tense to talk about what is happening right now. Now we are going to use it to talk about the future.
- Point to the first column in the Grammar Focus box. Elicit the rule for forming the present continuous:
Question: (Wh) + be + subject + verb + -ing + ?
Statement: Subject + be + verb + -ing.

Be going to

- Explain that we can also use be going to + verb for future plans. Focus Ss' attention on the second column in the Grammar Focus box.

T: Are you going to do anything on Friday? (pointing to Friday)
S1: Yes. I'm going to study.
T: What about you, Pablo? What are you doing on Friday?
- Play the audio program. Ask Ss to repeat or mouth the words as they hear them.

5 ROLE PLAY

Learning Objective: role-play a conversation between two people making plans

- Divide the class into groups A and B. Ask Students B to look at the excuses in the Snapshot on page 100 while you explain the task to Students A.
- Explain the task to Students A. Model the example questions. Elicit additional questions that Ss can use to invite someone out (e.g., What are you doing on . . . ? Are you busy on . . . ?). Write these cues on the board for Student As to use in their invitations: activity/event day/date/time place

- While Students A plan their invitations, explain the task to Students B. Model how to accept or refuse an invitation. Elicit more examples from Ss (e.g., Wow! That sounds great! Thanks, I've really wanted to do that!).
- Model the role play with Ss. Show Ss how to elaborate and use their own words.
- Ss work in pairs to do the role play. Remind Ss to use the cues in the book and on the board.
- Provide feedback. Then Ss change roles and do the activity again.

8 GRAMMAR FOCUS

Learning Objective: practice writing and giving messages with tell and ask

 [CD 3, Track 46]

Tell with statements

- Focus Ss' attention on the "statement" part of the Grammar Focus box. Ask these four questions:
 1. "What is the message?" (The meeting is on Friday.)
 2. "Do we use tell or ask with statements?" (tell)
 3. "Does the message change when we use tell?" (no)
 4. "What are three ways to ask someone to relay a message?" (Please tell X . . . /Could you tell him/her . . . ?/Would you tell him/her . . . ?)
- Elicit the rule for forming messages with a statement:
Tell + person + (that) + the statement.

Ask with requests

- Repeat the above steps for requests with the "request" part of the Grammar Focus box.
 1. "What is the message?" (Call me this afternoon.)
 2. "Do we use tell or ask with requests?" (ask)
 3. "Does the message change when we use ask?" (no, but we use to)
 4. "What are three ways to ask someone to relay a message?" (Please ask X . . . /Could you ask him/her . . . ?/Would you ask him/her . . . ?)

- Elicit the rule for forming messages with a request:
Ask + person + to + the request.
- Focus Ss' attention on the Conversation on page 102. Ask: "What structures does Mr. Kale use when he gives his two messages?" (Answers: Please tell her . . . , Could you ask her to . . . ?)
- Use the audio program to present the language.
- Present messages 1–6. Model how to unscramble the first sentence. Point out that both statements and requests begin with the words please, could, or would.
- Ss complete the task individually.
- Option: If Ss have difficulty with the patterns for tell and ask, ask them to read each message and find the ask examples (2, 5, 6). Ask Ss "Are these requests?" (yes)
- Ss compare messages in pairs. Then elicit and check Ss' answers around the class.

Answers

1. Please tell Ryan that the barbecue is on Saturday.
2. Could you ask Patrick to call me at 12:00?
3. Could you tell Amy that the dance performance is tonight?
4. Would you tell Celia that the picnic is in the park?
5. Would you ask Noriko to meet me at the stadium?
6. Please ask Jason to bring the tickets to the rock concert.

9 WRITING

Learning Objective: write a note asking someone to pass on messages with tell and ask

A Pair work

- Explain the task. Ask Ss to read the example message silently. Using the example message, demonstrate with a S.

The writer's tasks:

1. The writer writes a note to his or her partner. The note should include three messages to other people in the class.
2. Then the writer gives the note with three messages to his or her partner.

The partner's tasks:

1. The partner reads the note and then gets up to tell the messages to the three people named in the note.
2. The partner goes to the first person in the note and tells him or her the writer's message. Then the partner goes to the second person in the note and tells the writer's message. Finally, the partner goes to the third person in the note and tells him or her the writer's message.

TIP For long instructions, it helps to write them on the board so Ss can follow them as the activity develops.

- Ss write their notes individually. Remind Ss to include messages for three people. Encourage Ss to write interesting or unusual messages.
- Give Ss five to ten minutes to write their messages.
- Option: Assign this writing task for homework.
- Ss exchange their notes with a partner. Then everyone gets up to deliver each message.

B Group work

- Ss work in groups to compare answers. Allow about five minutes for discussion. Remind Ss to decide who has the most unusual message. Groups share their most unusual message with the class.

8 GRAMMAR FOCUS

Dear Rachel,
Could you tell Brian to wear two different color socks tomorrow?
Please tell Jeff that our class tomorrow is at midnight.
Would you ask Sun-hee to bring me a hamburger and french fries for breakfast tomorrow?

Thanks!
David

B GROUP WORK Compare your messages.
Which is the most unusual?

10 PRONUNCIATION Reduction of could you and would you

A Listen and practice. Notice how could you and would you are reduced in conversation.

[cʊdʒə]
Could you tell her the meeting is on Friday?

[wʊdʒə]
Would you ask him to call me this afternoon?

B PAIR WORK Practice these questions with reduced forms.

Could you tell them I'll be late?
Would you ask her to be on time?

Could you ask her to return my dictionary?

12 ROLE PLAY

Learning Objective: role-play a conversation between two people talking on the phone

- Divide the class into pairs and assign A/B roles. Explain the roles and go over the A/B cues.
- Model the role play with a S. Have Ss sit back-to-back. Change roles if necessary.
- Option: Before starting the activity, tell Ss to reread the Conversation on page 102. Or Ss can listen again to the audio program in Exercise 11 to review phone etiquette. Ask Students A to find expressions callers use and Students B to find expressions receptionists use.

- Ss do the first role play, sitting back-to-back. Provide feedback after they finish.
- Explain the second role play and go over the A/B cues. Pairs change roles and do the new role play.

TIP To maintain interest it's best to ask only one pair to demonstrate the role play to the class.

13 READING

Learning Objectives: read and discuss an article about cell phone etiquette; develop skills in scanning, summarizing, and recognizing points of view

- Books closed. To set the scene, ask Ss to brainstorm things that cell phone users do that are dangerous or rude (e.g., They talk too loudly. They take calls in movie theaters.).
- Books open. Call on a S to read the title aloud. Elicit or explain that etiquette means "manners."
- Tell Ss to read the cell phone article quickly. Ask Ss to find the answers to the pre-reading questions. (Answers: It's not OK to use a cell phone in a movie theater. It's not OK to use a cell phone in a restaurant if there is a sign saying "turn off cell phones." It's not OK to use a cell phone on the street if you talk loudly or if you don't watch where you're going.)

- Explain the task. Ss read the article silently. Remind Ss to try to guess the meanings of any words they don't know.
- Elicit or explain any new vocabulary.

Vocabulary

happens: occurs; takes place day-to-day: ordinary; regular beeping: a short, high-pitched sound take calls: answer the phone ringer: device that creates the ring-tone on a cell phone

You get the picture.: You understand what I am talking about.

nuisance: something that is annoying

- For a new way to teach the vocabulary in this Reading, try Vocabulary Mingle – download it on the website.
- Ss complete the summary. Then go over answers with the class.
- Option: If the summary seems too difficult for your Ss, include the words in a cloud summary on the board, like this:

Answers

Many people don't practice good cell phone etiquette.

They talk too loudly, listen to loud music, or check their email while crossing the street. To be a better cell phone user, follow a few simple rules. For example: Turn off your phone in public places that don't allow cell phones; speak softly on phone calls; and don't talk, text, play games, or listen to music while driving or crossing the street.

- Ask the following question: "Is the writer against cell phones, for cell phones, or for cell phones only if they're used in a way that doesn't bother other people?"
- Elicit examples in the article that show the writer's opinion.
- Explain the task. Ss imagine they are the writer of the article. They check (✓) the sentences the writer would agree with.
- Ss complete the task individually. Then they compare answers with a partner.
- Go over answers with the class.

Answers

The writer would probably agree with 3, 7, 8.

C Pair work

- Explain the task. Ss work in pairs. They discuss which opinions they agree or disagree with and why.

End of Cycle 2

See the Supplementary Resources chart at the beginning of this unit for additional teaching materials and student activities related to this Cycle.

13 READING

Cell Phone Etiquette

Scan the article. Is it OK to use a cell phone in a movie theater? in a restaurant? on the street?

What do these things have in common: a stranger's personal problems, details about a business meeting, the food in someone's refrigerator, someone's medical issues, and a private argument? These are all things you hear about when the people around you don't practice good cell phone etiquette!

Most people find cell phones a necessity in their day-to-day lives. But we've all sat next to someone talking too loudly, listening to loud music, or playing a loud beeping game on a cell phone. But a recent report shows that while most people are annoyed by cell phone rudeness, most admit to doing it, too. What can you do to practice better etiquette? Here are a few rules:

> Off means off! Respect the rules of restaurants and other public places. If a sign says "No cell phones," don't use your phone – for anything.

> Keep private conversations private! Speak softly and for a short time. Observe the 3-meter (10-feet) rule – stay away from other people.

> Lights off, phone off! Never take calls or send text messages in a theater, at the movies, or at a performance. Turn your phone or your ringer off.

> Pay attention! Talking or texting while driving is dangerous. Listening to music with headphones while driving is dangerous. Crossing the street while playing a game or checking your email is dangerous. You get the picture.

Cell phones have become mini-computers that people depend on 24 hours a day. But don't let yours become a nuisance – or a danger – to others! Next time you're getting ready to use yours, stop and consider the people around you.

A Read the article. Then complete the summary with information from the article.

Many people don't practice good cell phone They talk too, listen to music, or check their email while the street. To be a better cell phone user, follow a few simple rules. For example: Turn your phone in public places that don't allow cell phones; speak on phone calls; and don't talk, text, play games, or listen to music while or crossing the street.

B Check (✓) the statements the writer would probably agree with.

- ☐ 1. You should never use a cell phone in public.
- ☐ 2. Cell phone users are very rude people.
- ☐ 3. Turn off your cell phone if someone asks you to.
- ☐ 4. You can talk loudly if you're more than 3 meters away from someone.
- ☐ 5. It's OK to send text messages while driving a car.
- ☐ 6. You can use a cell phone at a dance performance if you speak quietly.
- ☐ 7. Don't play games on your phone in restaurants.
- ☐ 8. Don't check your email while crossing the street.

I'm going to a soccer match. ■ 105

Which of these events are the most important changes?
Have any of these things happened to you recently?
What other things bring about change in our lives?

2 CONVERSATION Catching up

A Listen and practice.

Diane: Hi, Kerry. I haven't seen you in ages. How have you been?

Kerry: Pretty good, thanks.

Diane: Are you still in school?

Kerry: No, not anymore. I graduated last year. And I got a job at Midstate Bank.

Diane: That's great news. You know, you look different. Have you changed your hair?

Kerry: Yeah, it's shorter. And I wear contacts now.

Diane: Well, you look fantastic!

Kerry: Thanks, so do you. And there's one more thing. Look! I got engaged.

Diane: Congratulations!

B Listen to the rest of the conversation. How has Diane changed?

A change for the better!

Cycle 1, Exercises 1–5

1 SNAPSHOT

Learning Objective: read and talk about things that change our lives

- Books closed. Write the unit title on the board. Elicit or explain the meaning of a change for the better and also a change for the worse. Explain that this unit is about important changes in our lives.
- Ss brainstorm things that change our lives (e.g., get married, have a child, change schools). Help with vocabulary as needed.
- Books open. Ss compare their ideas with those in the Snapshot.
- Elicit or explain any new vocabulary.

2 CONVERSATION

Learning Objectives: practice a conversation between two people catching up; see descriptions of changes in context

A [CD 3, Track 49]

- Set the scene. Two old friends run into each other and “catch up” on changes in their lives.
- Books closed. Play the audio program. Ask: “Has Kerry’s life changed for the better or for the worse?” (Answer: for the better)
- Write these focus questions on the board:
True or false?
1. Kerry is still in school.
2. Her hair is shorter than before.
3. She got married.
- Play the audio program again. Then elicit the answers. (Answers: 1. false 2. true 3. false) For the false ones, ask Ss what really happened.
- Books open. Play the audio program again. Ss listen and read along silently. Elicit or explain any new vocabulary.

Vocabulary

contacts: short for contact lenses got engaged: formally agreed to marry someone

- For a new way to practice this Conversation, try Say It With Feeling! – download it from the website.

In Unit 16, students talk about changes in a person’s life. In Cycle 1, they discuss changes using the comparative and the present, past, and present perfect tenses. In Cycle 2, they talk about plans for the future using verb + infinitive.

Vocabulary

driver’s license: a document that proves you are legally allowed to drive a car graduate: complete your studies abroad: to a foreign country

- Explain the tasks. Ss discuss the questions in pairs or small groups. Remind Ss they don’t have to share personal information. They can respond by saying “I prefer not to talk about that.”
- Have a brief class discussion about changes that have occurred in Ss’ lives.

- Ss practice the conversation in pairs. Go around the class and give help as needed.
- Option: Ss write their own conversation, based on the one in the book. They practice the new conversation in pairs.

B [CD 3, Track 50]

- Play the audio program once or twice. Ss listen to find out how Diane has changed.
- Ss compare answers in small groups. Then go over answers with the class.

AudioScript

Kerry So tell me, Diane, what have you been up to?

Diane Well, let’s see. I’ve changed jobs.

Kerry Really? You don’t work at the hospital anymore?

Diane No, I left last year. I’m still a nurse, but I work in a private clinic. My job is less stressful now.

Kerry Do you still live downtown?

Diane Oh, no. I moved to a new place. I’m in the suburbs now. I live in Parkview, just outside the city.

Kerry Parkview? That’s where I live! That means we’re neighbors!

Possible answers

Diane changed jobs, works now in a private clinic, and moved to the suburbs.

3 GRAMMAR FOCUS

Possible answers

Present tense

Are you still in school?
That's great news.
You look different.
I wear contacts now.

There's one more thing.

Present perfect

I haven't seen you in ages.
How have you been?
Have you changed your hair?

Past tense

I graduated last year.
I got a job.
I got engaged.

Comparative

It's shorter.

- Play the audio program to present the grammar. Then ask Ss to describe the changes to the man in the picture (e.g., He wears different clothes now. He has grown taller. His hair is shorter now.).

- Encourage Ss to use a variety of verb + infinitive forms.
- Ss work in small groups to discuss their plans. Set a time limit of about ten minutes. Tell groups to choose one person to take notes.

TIP If you notice that you always monitor groups in the same order (e.g., you always start at the front of the class), change your routine. Try starting from another direction so that some Ss do not get ignored.

B Group work

- Ss discuss their plans in their groups. Then Ss can report their plans orally to the class.

11 WRITING

C Pair work

- Explain the task. Ss work in pairs to discuss one of their personal goals and the steps they will take to achieve them.
- Option: Draw this diagram on the board. Label the circles (from outside to in): five-year goal, one-year goal, three-month goal, one-month goal. Label the center circle Major Goal. Ss copy the diagram and complete it. Then they discuss the goals in pairs.

See the Supplementary Resources chart at the beginning of this unit for additional teaching materials and student activities related to this Cycle and for assessment tools.

12 READING

Goal Setting

Setting Personal Goals

Look at the list in the article. Which of these areas of your life would you like to change or improve?

Ask any top athlete or successful businessperson and they will tell you the importance of setting goals. Goal setting can motivate you and give your life direction. It seems easy, right? Just write down a list of things you want to achieve and then do them. Well, it's not that easy!

Effective goal setting happens on several levels. First, you create a big picture of what you want to do with your life. At this point, you decide what large-scale goals you want to achieve. Second, you divide these into smaller and smaller tasks. Third, you put the smaller tasks into a rough time line. Finally, once you have your plan, you start working to achieve it.

How do you know what your large-scale goals are? These questions can help you get started.

Career

What level do you want to reach in your career?

Family

What kind of relationship do you want with the people in your family?

Community Service

How do you want to give back to your community?

Financial

How much money do you want to earn? How much do you want to save?

Creative

Do you want to achieve any artistic goals?

Physical

How will you stay in good physical shape throughout your life?

Education

What do you want to learn? How will you learn it?

Recreation

How do you want to enjoy yourself?

PROCESS

Write down your goals and think about them carefully. Are they realistic?

How important are they?

Rank them in order from most important to least important.

Then follow the process above to make your long-term plan. Remember, your goals can change with time.

Look at them regularly and adjust them if necessary. And be sure your goals are things you hope to achieve, not things others want.

A Read the article. Who do you think the article was written for? Check (✓) the correct answer.

People who ...

☐ have very clear goals

☐ are looking for direction

☐ don't care about their future

B Answer these questions.

1. What kinds of people set personal goals?
2. Why do people set personal goals?
3. Why should you divide your goals into steps?
4. Why is it important to adjust your goals?

C PAIR WORK What is one of your personal goals? What steps will you take to achieve it?

Learning Objective: find out more about classmates using a survey about schedules

A Class activity

- Focus Ss' attention on the pictures at the bottom of the page. Ask: "What does the woman do every day? What time does she do each thing?"

- Go over any new vocabulary in the chart. Teach or review how to write times.
- Explain the first part of the task. Ask Ss: "What time do you get up during the week?" Ss complete the first line in the Me column. Then they complete the rest of the column individually. Allow about three minutes. Go around the class and give help as needed.

- Explain the rest of the task. Ss go around the class and interview two classmates. They write each classmate's name at the top of the column and ask the questions in the chart. They write a time for each response.
- Model the task with a S.

TIP At beginning levels, sometimes instructions are difficult to understand. It is much more effective to model the task than to explain it.

- Set a time limit of about 15 minutes. Then Ss complete the task. Go around the class and give help as needed. Write down any errors you hear for Ss to correct later.

B Pair work

- Explain the task. Go over the useful expressions and model the example conversation with a S.
- Ss complete the task in pairs. Encourage them to explain why.
- Elicit answers from the class.

interchange 3

Learning Objectives: ask for and give prices; practice bargaining

A

- Point out the title. Explain that a flea market is a place where people sell used things. Sellers have an "asking price," but people bargain.
- Ask: "Are there flea markets in your country? Do people bargain for better prices?" Encourage discussion.
- Focus Ss' attention on the pictures on both pages. Ask: "What do you see here? What are these people doing?"
- Divide the Ss into pairs and assign pages A and B. Explain the task.
- Focus Ss' attention on the TV. Ask: "What is a good price for a used TV?" Tell Ss with page A to choose an "asking price" and write it down. Then focus Ss' attention on the painting. Ask: "What is a good price for the painting?" Tell Ss with page B to choose an "asking price" and write it down.
- Ss work individually to make up prices for the remaining four items.

TIP If Ss have difficulty with a specific task, try a different grouping for the task. For example, have them work in small groups instead of pairs.

B Pair work

- Explain the task. Ss work in pairs. Students A and B take turns as buyer and seller. The buyers choose three things they want to buy from their partner's page. Buyers decide on a good price for each thing.

interchange 3 FLEA MARKET

Student A

A You want to sell these things. Write your "asking price" for each item.

116 ■ Interchange 3

- Model the example conversation with a few Ss, showing that A is the buyer and B is the seller. Remind the class to vary the conversation and to bargain.
- Give Ss a time limit of about ten minutes. Explain that partners need to take turns starting the conversation so that each S is both buyer and seller.
- Continue until both partners buy and sell at least three things. Tell the Ss to write down the prices they bought the things for.
- Go around the class and give help as needed.
- Option: Ask a pair of Ss to perform their role play for the class. Alternatively, Ss can change partners and try the activity again.

Student B

A You want to sell these things. Write your "asking price" for each item.

Students A and B

B PAIR WORK Now choose three things you want to buy. Get the best price for each one. Then write what each item "sold for" on the price tag.

A: How much is the lamp?
B: It's only $30.
A: Wow! That's expensive!
B: Well, how about $25?
A: No. That's still too much. I'll give you $20 for it.
B: Sold! It's yours.

C GROUP WORK Compare your earnings in groups. Who made the most money at the flea market?

Interchange 3 ■ 117

- Option: Ss make a list of six to eight things to sell at a flea market. They can also bring in two or three things and role-play a sale at a flea market.
- Ss work in groups to take turns making and responding to invitations. Go around the room and encourage Ss to respond politely.
- Option: Elicit interesting refusals that Ss made.
- C Group work
- Ss look at the "sold for" part of their page and add up the amount of money they made individually.

interchange 4

Learning Objective: to make weekend plans with classmates

A

- Explain the task. Ss read the directions. Ss write two tasks they need to do this weekend and the times. Model an example for the class.
- Ss complete the task individually.

B

- Ss read the events page and make their choices individually. Explain any vocabulary they need help with.

C Group work

- Explain the task. Model the example with a S. Review invitations and polite refusals if necessary.
- Ss work in groups to take turns making and responding to invitations. Go around the room and encourage Ss to respond politely.

S: I think a whale lives the longest.

T: Hmm. I think a tortoise lives the longest.

S: I don't agree. I think a whale lives the longest.

T: OK, I guess we disagree here. So I'll check the tortoise and you check the whale. We'll find out later who got the correct answer for this one.
